CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY WISCONSIN

MISSION STATEMENT

Concordia University Wisconsin is a Lutheran higher education community committed to helping students develop in mind, body, and spirit for service to Christ in the Church and the world.

ADULT EDUCATION STUDIES

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Concordia University’s Adult Education Studies is charged with carrying the mission of the University to the non-traditional adult student. Like the traditional degree programs, the programs in the Adult Education Studies are founded in the Christian Liberal Arts tradition of the University.

However, the program is very much tailored to the needs and unique capabilities of the adult learner. For instance, classes are offered at locations near students’ homes or work. Classes are offered in an accelerated evening format. Three credits can be earned in four to six weeks (eight weeks in the Masters Program) with classes meeting once per week. In addition, students can earn credit in a variety of modalities from the traditional classroom setting to college level learning experiences obtained through their career or even hobbies.

The adult student and the traditional post high school age student differ in that the former has benefited from years of life experience and then sought the academic education, while the traditional student first receives the education and then the life experience. Thus, the needs of the adult learner are different; socialization, for instance, plays a much greater role in the academic life of the traditional student and, indeed, accounts for much of the necessity for extended contact hours. Adults, on the other hand, are interested in cutting right to the essence of a topic and are capable of processing greater amounts of material over much shorter periods of time.

We are often asked what the difference is between Concordia’s programs and those of other accelerated adult degree programs. We are often asked how we get as much accomplished in a four to six week schedule as one does in a traditional semester. If one views the adult educational paradigm as merely an accelerated version of a traditional semester, then the format fails - it lacks academic integrity. If, however, one considers the paradigm as a “distance learning” or “independent study” format to which are added 16 to 24 hours of classroom experience, then one will have a better understanding of the adult learning process. It is expected and required that the majority of the learning will occur outside the classroom through directed independent study.

A hallmark of all adult education degree programs is a strong emphasis on the direct applicability of the course material to the students’ careers. Our majors accomplish this admirably. In addition, and this is the key difference, our entire program is infused with the liberal arts conveyed in a Lutheran Christian context.

The goal in adult education is personal development. The University has identified nine competencies or areas in which this should occur: aesthetic sensibilities, communication skills, cultural understanding, numeracy, problem solving, physical development, spiritual development, scientific literacy, and citizenship. Growth in these areas occurs throughout the program of study and is measured and documented by the school’s comprehensive assessment plan.

MAJOR: LIBERAL ARTS

The Liberal Arts curriculum provides core credits and electives for all career-field majors, or it stands by itself as a major or minor. The major sequence consists of integrated studies of mankind and civilization. The courses combine the history, literature, world view, great works, and major figures of each culture studied.

The goals of Liberal Arts are depth, breadth, creative thinking, and leadership development in all the disciplines and areas of the competencies. These are transferable skills that prepare the student for change and never go out of date.

Liberal Arts modules foster student development in each of the nine areas of competency that comprise the CUW curriculum: aesthetics, citizenship, communication, cultural understanding, numeracy, physical discipline, problem solving, scientific literacy, and spiritual development. In addition, the Liberal Arts major includes the following major-specific goals, enabling students better to “gauge” the world we live in by being able to:

- Gain a broad knowledge of major world cultures;
- Acquire a fundamental knowledge of world history that includes major events, themes, and persons;
- Understand the geographical, cultural, religious, and political divisions of the physical world;
- Grasp the correlation between works of literature and their historical and cultural contexts;
- Explore key philosophical movements and their relationship to Christian faith.

MAJOR: THEOLOGY

God reveals Himself through His Word and, to a lesser degree, through His world. The Theology Major examines the Bible, God’s revealed Word, in broad introductory overviews of the Holy Scriptures (isagogics) as well as in close reading of a particular biblical book (exegetical studies). The major also studies God’s providence in history. In addition, students receive practical training in the application of their studies in ministry to others. For many Christians, the Theology Major offers the opportunity for a vocation in church, either as a primary or secondary calling.

Through participation in, and upon completion of, the Theology Major at Concordia University Wisconsin, students will:

- have a greater understanding of God’s Word, the Holy Scriptures
- appreciate the value of sound Christian doctrine based squarely on the Bible
- develop a heightened awareness of God’s working throughout history
- understand the relevance of God’s Word in today’s world
- be able to apply scriptural truths in ministry to others
- serve as effective leaders in the Church and community

With two additional courses and a semester-long internship in a congregation, Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod students are eligible for certification in the Synod’s Lay Ministry program.

(T) = Telecourse
(EL) = E-Learning
A student’s grade point average on the Concordia transcript will be based on the credits taken after entering the Adult Education Studies Program. It does not include the GPA for coursework taken prior to entering Concordia. College level courses in which the student earned a "C-" or better will be accepted in transfer from regionally accredited colleges and universities. There is a maximum of 80 credits allowed for transfer.

Prior approval must be obtained before enrolling in any of the options listed below. All transcripts must be on file at Concordia to ensure there will be no duplication of coursework.

E-Learning Courses are available to our undergraduate students through the E-Learning office at Concordia. These courses may appeal to students who prefer self-study to classroom participation, or who missed out on a course needed with their cohort. The tuition is the same as other adult education courses, and books are included in the cost. For more information on courses offered in this format please contact the office of E-Learning at 262-243-4442.

Independent Study allows students to develop a course of study in a subject area for which there is not already a module or credits on the student’s transcript. Through the completion of the proposal, the student will state goals and objectives, materials to be used, and means of assessing the learning. An advisor will be assigned to the study. It is the responsibility of the advisor to supervise the completion of the study and to report to Concordia satisfactory completion of the work, at which time credit will be awarded.

Travel Studies Travel study opportunities are offered every year and are available to traditional and adult students alike. Over the past few years destinations have ranged from Italy, to London, the Caribbean, China, France, and Africa. Participants should contact the sponsor of the trip directly to obtain the necessary forms. To register for the accompanying course credit, if desired, the student should contact the center that they attend to obtain the correct course code. Credit can be applied to the elective or, in some cases, the core area. Undergraduate students may be eligible for up to $1000 in grant money if they have earned at least 60 credits at Concordia. Grant applications must be submitted the year before the trip.

Portfolio Assessment of experiential learning allows students to document college-level knowledge and competence acquired outside a classroom setting. Portfolio Development Workshops are periodically conducted at each center and an online portfolio workshop is also available. During these sessions the students are guided through the process of determining what constitutes college-level learning, the process of developing each petition for credit, and the means to use for providing documentation. Portfolio credits apply only to the elective area, though 2 of the 21 credits may apply to the physical development core requirement. For an AA degree, a maximum of 7 credits may be applied toward that degree. For a BA degree, a maximum of 21 of the required elective credits may be earned through the portfolio. A per credit fee is charged for portfolio credit requests.

College Level Examination Program (CLEP) and Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support (DANTES) These programs serve students who want recognition for college level achievement acquired outside the conventional classroom. Check with your director for test centers in your area. Students must complete a Transfer Request Form so that the individual record can be checked to be sure that the proposed credits will be accepted. Students will need to allow at least two weeks for these requests to be processed. To receive credit for either CLEP or DANTES tests students may not have credit for similar coursework on their transcripts. CLEP and DANTES credits are not accepted for Core credit, except in the areas of Physical Development and Mathematics.

ACE (American Council on Education), and PONSI (National Program on Non-collegiate Sponsored Instruction) are organizations which validate for-credit coursework completed through non-collegiate education and training programs. The student must have official copies of the educational transcripts sent to Concordia.

LOMA (Life Office Management Association) and AIB (American Institute of Banking) provide means to receive college credit for company training professional development programs through an employer. The student must have official copies of the educational transcripts sent to Concordia.

Military Credits are granted based on the evaluation of an official AARTS or SMART transcript, or for military service prior to 1981, DD 214 documentation.
ADMISSION PROCEDURE

APPLICATION PROCESS

1. Attend an Information Session or personal appointment with a program representative.

2. Complete the Application Form and submit it along with the $50 application fee to the director of the Center you plan to attend. This form is also available online.

3. Request that official transcripts from all colleges or universities attended be sent directly to the Center at which you are enrolling. In cases where the student has less than 12 transferable credits, a high school transcript must also be requested.

4. Prospective students for whom English is not their native language must submit scores from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). The exam is now computer based, and a score of 173 is required for admission.

TYPES OF ADMISSION

Full Admission  The student has met all requirements and the student’s file is complete.

Tentative Admission  For one term only, the student’s file is incomplete at the time class starts. This may be due to a delay in receipt of transcripts or financial aid. When the file is complete, the student will be given full admission and is eligible to continue with Term Two. If the file is not complete by the end of Term One, or the evaluation shows deficiencies, the student is not eligible for Term Two and will automatically be dropped from the class. Subsequently, when all required documents are on file, the student may apply for re-entry.

Special Student Status—Non Degree Seeking  Students not seeking to receive a degree may enroll in courses at Concordia. One such example would be a student who has a Bachelor’s or higher degree or is currently enrolled in another Bachelor’s Degree program, and wishes to enroll in individual courses. Another type of special student would be one who enrolls in a certificate program.

REGISTRATION AND PAYMENT OPTIONS

A. Students must make a $75 non-refundable deposit when they are accepted into the program to secure their place in the class. This amount is a down payment on the tuition and not an additional fee. This deposit is required whether or not the student will be receiving financial aid or corporate reimbursement.

B. Payment for each module is due on or before the first night of class. Payment is due whether or not the student will be receiving financial aid or corporate reimbursement. Occasionally, financial aid will not be available before the first course, nor will most companies pay for courses before they are completed. Consequently, students might plan on covering the first course from personal funds. When that is not possible, special arrangements can be made with the business office.

C. The books and materials for the first module will be distributed at the orientation session, provided that the tuition deposit has been made.

READMISSION POLICY

Students who wish to resume their studies after an absence of a year or more will re-enter the program under the rules and regulations of the current catalog. A new evaluation form will be completed at that time. Any new course requirements in either the major or the core must be met.
ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS

Students must maintain at least a 2.0 GPA (CUW grades only) to be considered in good academic standing and to graduate. If a student’s GPA falls below 2.0 at the end of a term, s/he is placed on academic probation. After two consecutive terms below 2.0, a student may be removed from the program.

An academic dismissal may be appealed to the Center Director who will collaborate with CUW’s Chief Academic Officer or designee and the appropriate Dean to determine the merit of the appeal. Dismissed students must wait at least six months before reapplying to the University; during which time they should address their deficiency and then be able to demonstrate that the deficiency has been removed (testing, a life change, course work at another university, etc.) in their application.

DROPS

Students who withdraw after the first week of class but before the second week will be charged 25% of the class tuition. If a student drops a module after the second session, he or she will receive a grade of “NC” (no credit). The “NC” designation does not affect the grade point average. There will be no refund for those withdrawing after the second class session. The student may be allowed to retake the course at no charge at a future date. The no-charge retake option will be limited to one per module and one per academic year (July 1st through June 30th). The retake must be completed within twelve months of the end of the original course.

For E-Learning or Telecourses: Students have 4 weeks from registration to order text(s) and turn in the 1st assignment to their instructor. A $50 registration fee will be assessed if the student fails to do so and will be administratively withdrawn from the course. If a student wishes to drop an E-Learning or Telecourse after the 1st assignment and before the 2nd assignment, the student will receive a 50% refund of tuition. If a student wishes to drop after the 2nd assignment is turned in, there will be no refund of tuition.

Indiana students - please see page 40 for State of Indiana required policies.

E-LEARNING

Business Management, Criminal Justice and the Human Resource Management Degree Programs are now being offered in an E-Learning format. This format is fully taught online.

Degree requirements are met by completing the online course content. The student will work on one with their instructor submitting all assignments online. Many exams are taking fully online and other courses may require the exam to be proctored at a test site set up near the student.

Before registering for an E-Learning course, check your readiness for taking courses via E-Learning:

Tuition for EL courses is the same as on-campus courses. Textbooks are included in your tuition. Textbooks are sent directly to the student and must be returned to the E-Learning office in good condition at the end of the course, using the labels that are provided.

Registration/Course Guidelines
Once you register for an EL course, you will have four weeks in which to order your textbooks and turn in your first assignment. If the first assignment is not turned in within the first four weeks, a NON-REFUNDABLE $50 registration fee will be charged to your account and you will be given an administrative withdrawal for the course.

Each course is to be completed in 8-10 weeks. You have up to 12 weeks from registration to finish the course. Please note the following timetable:

4 weeks after registration: Must have started class. An administrative withdrawal will be given if there is no record of the first assignment turned in and the $50 registration fee will be nonrefundable.

Financial Aid Recipients
Students receiving financial aid must be enrolled and have turned in one or more assignments in at least 6 credits each term to qualify for halftime status.

ABSENCES AND TARDINESS

Because modules in the program are only four to six weeks in length, it is required that students attend each session. If emergency circumstances dictate missing a session, please notify the center staff and the instructor. If absence patterns develop, students may be asked to meet with the center/program director to justify their continued participation in the program.

Students are expected to attend all class periods of the courses for which they have registered. Absence from a course may result in a lower grade, depending on the professor’s grading policy. The determination of what constitutes excessive absence in any course rests with the professor conducting that course.
Concordia University offers Federal Title IV funding for Federal grants and the Federal Subsidized and Unsubsidized Loan programs. Students must complete the “Free Application for Federal Student Aid” (www.fafsa.ed.gov) each academic year to gain eligibility for any of these financial aid options.

FEDERAL PELL GRANT - This federal grant is awarded to undergraduate students on the basis of financial need and is prorated per class enrollment. The maximum amount of this grant per semester is $2775.

FEDERAL DIRECT SUBSIDIZED LOAN – This federal loan may be offered up to $5,500 per year depending on financial need and grade level. It accrues no interest until repayment which begins 6 months after separation from the University or when a student is enrolled less than half time (6 credits). The interest rate for the 2010-2011 academic year is at a fixed rate of 4.5%. A net Origination and Guarantee Fee of ½ % is deducted from the disbursement.

FEDERAL DIRECT UNSUBSIDIZED LOAN – This federal loan is an additional loan for educational expenses of up to $7,000 per year depending on eligibility and grade level. Interest with a fixed rate of 6.8% begins when the loan is disbursed. A net Origination and Guarantee Fee of ½ % is deducted from the disbursement. Payments may be deferred while the student is enrolled but note that interest accrues during this time. Repayment with interest begins 6 months after separation from the University or when enrollment drops to less than half time (6 credits).

VETERANS BENEFITS - Veteran students can check on their eligibility for benefits by calling the Veterans Affairs Office in St. Louis at 888-442-4551. Students may research useful information concerning veteran benefits at the Concordia University website. Click on “resources.” Students attending campuses outside of Wisconsin should contact their Center Directors for more information. All other students may contact Barb Ellmaker, the Certifying Official at the Mequon Center, at 262-243-4350.

EMPLOYEE REIMBURSEMENT - Many employers offer tuition reimbursement for students advancing their education. Students using Employer Reimbursement must have either the payment for each class or have financial aid in place on the start day of the class.

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The Master of Business Administration (MBA) Program is based upon the University’s stated mission of developing in students the “professional competencies and commitment required for responsible participation and leadership in a complex society.”

Concordia University Wisconsin’s MBA Program is designed to prepare men and women to meet the challenges of a changing administrative environment. The program is designed to provide the opportunity of a professional education for the working student. The curriculum provides the broad base of knowledge needed by middle and upper level managers. While the MBA program is designed for those in business professions, it is readily adapted to meet the needs of students from engineering, health, non-profit, religious, and other fields.

The MBA degree requires 39 semester hours of credit comprising 13 courses. No thesis is required for this degree. Students ordinarily take one course at a time. This allows the program to accommodate a student’s professional and personal schedule to the maximum degree possible. The capstone course, MBA 590, must be taken at the end of the degree program. Students must complete all requirements for the MBA degree within five (5) years of entry.

Our flexible program gives you the choice of pursuing your MBA in accelerated eight week classroom courses or through E-Learning where you have up to 16 weeks to complete a course.

You are given the flexibility to design your MBA program. With our guidance you decide the course load and courses you wish to take.
