Concordia University–Ann Arbor

Located in the heart of Southeast Michigan, Concordia University offers an intimate, stimulating campus environment in the midst of a cosmopolitan university community with an international flair. Downtown Ann Arbor, a city of 110,000, is less than five miles from campus. Concordia is also close to several metropolitan areas and to the rest of the United States via Detroit Metro Airport, which is only 25 miles away.

Concordia students enjoy a challenging academic environment dedicated to the intellectual, social, and spiritual growth of each individual in a supportive Christian community.

History of the Campus

Concordia University stands on 187 acres overlooking the Huron River. Once a home to peoples of the Chippewa, Ottawa, Potawatomi, Huron and Miami nations, the campus is bisected by Geddes Road, formerly the Potawatomi Trail, an old Indian highway. In the spring of 1680, the French explorer LaSalle became the first European to view the campus site. The earliest settler of the land was Elnathan Botsford, one of the first residents of Ann Arbor, who arrived in 1825. In 1917, Harry Boyd Earhart purchased the property. A philanthropist, Mr. Earhart's interests focused on education, religion and charity. In the late 1950s, the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod began a search for a site to build a college. The Earhart estate was purchased in the early 1960s and construction commenced. Concordia College, Ann Arbor was dedicated in 1963 as a junior college. That year, Concordia was granted the right to award the Associate of Arts degree by the State of Michigan. The expansion of the college to a four-year institution with the right to award the Bachelor of Arts degree was approved by the State in 1976. In 2000, the State approved the graduate program. In July 2001 the name was officially changed to Concordia University.

The University offers a variety of pre-professional programs, in addition to degree programs. These programs prepare students to enter professional schools or are for those who desire a two year course of study.

Objectives of the University

Mission and Purpose Statement

Within its distinctly Christian environment and its academic community dedicated to excellence, Concordia University serves as a liberal arts University of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, preparing men and women for a life of service in the church and in the world.

Core Values

Concordia University is a Christian educational institution where the Lutheran understanding of Scripture and the Good News of Jesus Christ permeates the culture and is shared with everyone. Our primary enterprises are learning, teaching, and scholarship grounded in faith. We are a community that expresses concern and care for every individual.

Vision Statement

Concordia University will enable learners to succeed in a rapidly changing world. Concordia will be:

- committed to faith and values formation
- focused on learner-centered achievement
- populated with diverse scholars
- engaged locally and globally

Accreditations and Affiliations

Concordia University is a member of The North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. Initial accreditation of Concordia's program was granted by North Central in 1968. The expanded academic program was most recently reviewed by The North Central Association in 2001. Accreditation of the four-year program has been in effect since July 1976 and the graduate program since 1999. In addition, Concordia University is accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). Documents are on file in the President's Office and may be reviewed by appointment.

Concordia holds membership in: the Lutheran Educational Conference of North America; the Association of Independent Colleges and Universities of Michigan; the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities; the American Council on Education; the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers; the Michigan Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers; the American Association of Higher Education; the Michigan Association for Colleges of Teacher Education; the National Research Center for College and University Admissions; the National Association of Christian College Admissions Personnel; the Lutheran Admission Counselors of the Missouri Synod; the National Christian College Athletic Association; and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Concordia University is a member of the Concordia University System - a consortium of the ten colleges and universities nationwide owned and operated by the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod. When a student enrolls at one Concordia campus, he or she is also enrolled in the Concordia University System through a process called simultaneous enrollment. This provides the qualified student with the opportunity to participate in the visiting student program, which allows up to two semesters of study on another Concordia campus. In addition, students in the Concordia University System may participate in all of the computer, communication, and video technologies which allow students on one campus to participate in selected courses on other Concordia campuses.

Admission

Admission to Concordia University is based upon a wide range of criteria designed to identify a student body with integrity, high academic standards and serious educational and personal goals. True to the University's commitment to individualized education, each application receives a confidential and in-depth reading.

Admission Criteria

When making the admission decision, the Director of Admission and/or Admissions Council considers a number of factors, including special characteristics of the applicant's source of secondary education. These may include: the difficulty of the student's overall curriculum; performance in the curriculum; rank in class; recommendations; test scores; personal statement and/or interview; special abilities not reflected in the student's secondary education. In addition, recent grade trends and general contributions to the school, community and church may be considered.

General Requirements

The University requires that applicants possess a high school diploma (or GED diploma) and recommends that they have successfully completed a college preparatory curriculum that includes: four credits of English; three credits of mathematics, including two credits of algebra and one of geometry; two credits of social studies; two credits of laboratory sciences; two credits of a foreign language. (If a student has not successfully completed all of these courses, the student's application may be deferred to the Admissions Council for further review.)

All forms should be submitted to the Office of Admission. The admission application must be accompanied by a non-refundable application fee, which does not apply toward tuition. The admission forms and transcripts of credit become property of Concordia University and will not be returned or forwarded.

Admission Process for First-Year Applicants

Applications for admission are considered on a rolling basis with a completed application and an official high school transcript (sent directly from the institution to Concordia), official certification of high school equivalency, or GED diploma (General Education Development). Students must also submit test scores from either American College Testing Program (ACT) or the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT). The ACT is preferred. The nonrefundable application fee should accompany a submitted application for admission. A personal essay is optional but encouraged. The essay is the student's opportunity to address goals, achievements, strengths, weaknesses and/or convictions, and reasons why a student is considering Concordia University.

If a student wishes to be considered for financial aid, all information must be received by May 1 to receive the best financial aid package. Concordia University has a strong desire to make our university experience possible for interested students. After May 1, awards are done on a funds-available basis.

GED Diploma Students

Mature persons who have not graduated from high school and desire admission are advised to complete graduation requirements through equivalency examination or other means in the district of their residence. The High School Equivalency Certificate, also known as the General Education Development diploma (GED), will be accepted in lieu of a high school diploma. To be considered for admission, the student must submit an official copy of the GED scores sent directly from the testing center to the Office of Admission at Concordia, the application for admission, a copy of the GED diploma certificate and a nonrefundable application fee.

Home-Schooled Student Admission

The Office of Admission requires that home-schooled students submit a transcript of their academic work and/or documentation from a home-based educational organization. Students must also submit test scores from either American College Testing Program (ACT) or the Scholastic Assessment Test (SAT). The ACT is preferred. A personal essay is also required. The essay is the student's opportunity to address goals, achievements, strengths, weaknesses and/or convictions, and reasons why a student is considering Concordia University. A nonrefundable application fee should accompany a submitted application for admission.

Transfer Student Admission

Transfer students are advised to submit an application for admission and a non-refundable application fee to the Office of Admission at Concordia University. Students should also request that official academic transcripts from each institution attended be sent directly from the previous institution to Concordia University. Transcripts issued to the student are not official and cannot be used to evaluate official transfer of credit.

Transferring students with fewer than 30 credit hours must submit official high school transcripts sent directly from the school to Concordia. Transfer students with fewer than 12 credit hours must also submit test scores from either the American College Testing Program (ACT) or the Scholastic Assessment Test (SAT). The ACT is preferred.

After admission is determined, the Registrar will evaluate the student's college transcripts. Credit is awarded in general education proficiencies (foreign language, writing, speech, and math) and general studies program requirements (social science, natural science, religion, humanities, language, and physical activities). Elective credits are a third alternative. Following the evaluation, an admission counselor will contact the student with the results.

International Student Admission

International students should contact the Office of Admission for an international student application. International students attend the same classes as American students; therefore, college-level reading, speaking, and writing of the English language are necessary. Admission requirements include the following: completed admission application, non-refundable application fee, documentation of TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) or the Michigan Test of Language Competency, academic record with official evaluation of foreign education credentials, completed Certificate of Financial Responsibility, and documentation of available funds.

Audit Admission

Individuals not seeking college credit may audit courses if space is available. Audited courses are posted on an official university transcript, but no credit is generated, and the course cannot be used toward degree completion. The required forms are available in the Registrar's Office.

Guest Student Admission

Guest students are qualified high school students or high school graduates who take courses without being accepted by Concordia's Office of Admission. Registration is completed through the Registrar's Office. Student fulfillment of course prerequisites is required, if student is taking course(s) for credit. A transcript is required for proof of meeting the prerequisite(s).

A high school student may attend Concordia (as a guest) if he/she provides a high school transcript indicating a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.00 and written approval from an advisor/official from his/her high school.

If the guest student is a high school graduate, high school and/or college transcripts are not required. A student who is enrolled in a degree program at another college or university may take any class authorized in writing (by that institution) if space is available. Student fulfillment of course prerequisites is required, if student is taking course(s) for credit. A transcript is required for proof of meeting the prerequisite(s).

Guest students are limited to eighteen total credits. Since guest students are not enrolled in a degree program at Concordia University, financial aid is not available.

Facsimile Transmission of Documents

Faxed documents are not considered official documents. While these documents may be helpful in advising and counseling students, official documents, sent directly from the originating school's registrar's office to Concordia, must follow facsimile transmission in order for the University to take official action.

Advanced Placement

College credit may be granted for Advanced Placement courses taken in high school. Students who achieve a selection score of three or higher on the Advanced Placement Exam may be granted credit in comparable courses applicable to their college program. An official score report, sent directly from the testing company to Concordia, is required. On this basis, students may be exempt from a course otherwise required and may be admitted to the next course offered in that field. Contact your high school counselor for more information about enrolling in Advanced Placement courses.

The Registrar maintains a list of the specific Advanced Placement Exams that are acceptable from these testing programs. The list includes test names, passing scores, the number of credits awarded if the test is passed, and equivalent Concordia courses if such exist. Partial credit for scores below the designated passing score will not be granted. Please contact the Registrar's Office for further information.

Credits Earned Through Standardized Tests

Credits may also be earned through the following standardized testing programs:

- College Level Examination Program (CLEP)
- Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support (DANTES)
- Excelsior College Examinations

An official score report, sent directly from the testing company to Concordia, is required. The Registrar maintains a list of the specific tests that are acceptable from these testing programs. The list includes test names, passing scores, the number of credits awarded if the test is passed, and equivalent Concordia courses if such exist. Partial credit for scores below the designated passing score will not be granted. Please contact the Registrar's Office for further information.

Tuition & Fees

As a private, not-for-profit educational institution sponsored by the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, Concordia University strives to provide the highest quality educational experience for its students at the lowest cost possible to insure the delivery of excellent educational services. The University provides and coordinates financial assistance to help students defray the costs of their educational endeavors. For more information on Financial Aid, see the bottom of page 11.

Tuition includes all amounts charged for a given class or set of classes, whether at a flat rate or per credit-hour cost. Fees include any various one-time and recurring fees charged to a student account. The Student Accounts Office may publish supplemental information detailing specific charges for tuition, fees, and other special fees or finance charges of the University. Fees and costs are subject to change without notice.

Payment of Fees

The full payment of tuition and fees is required before to the start of a given semester. Prior to each semester, Concordia University will mail a statement of the student's account including tuition and fees. If the student is receiving financial aid not shown on the statement, the anticipated amount is subtracted from the "payment due" on the account statement to arrive at the revised balance due. This revised balance is due before the start of the semester. Students may be dropped from classes, if payment or arrangements are not made on time.

The University will offer deferred payment options whereby a student may request to make a partial payment at the time of registration and subsequent payments for the remainder of the semester. This request must be made to the Accounting Office and approved by the Director of Accounting. Where approval is granted, a service fee will be assessed as well as finance charges on the outstanding balance. Under a deferred payment option, full payment of all charges must be made by the end of each semester. A student with an outstanding balance at the end of a semester will not be authorized to register for a subsequent semester until the account obligation is satisfied or after special payment arrangements have been completed.

Statements are printed and mailed monthly, but additional statements may be requested via phone or e-mail at any time. Concordia University accepts payments by cash, check, or credit card (Visa, MasterCard, and American Express).

Deposits

The tuition deposit fee of $125 for a student in the traditional program is due once the student has been admitted and has decided to attend Concordia University. Additionally, all students wishing to live on-campus must make a $100 deposit for room and board. These deposits apply toward education costs for the first academic year and are not refundable after May 1 unless the offer of admission is withdrawn at the initiative of the University.

Room and Board

The amounts paid for room and board provide a shared room and a meal plan. Single occupancy rooms may be available from time to time at additional cost. All students living in campus housing must participate in the food service program of the University. Meal service is not available during the Thanksgiving, Christmas, Spring break, and Easter recesses. Students living off campus may purchase individual meals through the food service program.

Students with documented medical dietary needs may obtain a “Request for Special Diet” form from the Director of Dining Services. The Director of Dining Services will have the option to accommodate a student’s medical dietary needs. In the event that the Director of Dining Services cannot accommodate a student’s medical dietary needs then that student may be exempted from mandatory participation in the food service program.

Refunds-Traditional Program

Students enrolled in the traditional program who completely withdraw from Concordia University and did not receive federal Title IV aid will receive a prorated refund of tuition and fees according to the following schedule. Special fees are non-refundable. Any refund due to a student for withdrawal from individual classes will be prorated in accordance with the following schedule.

First Week	90%	Fifth Week	50%
Second Week	80%	Sixth Week	40%
Third Week	70%	After sixth week	None
Fourth Week	60%

Upon complete withdrawal from the University, refunds of room & board will be calculated at an estimated weekly charge based on a 15 week semester dormitory stay. Refunds are only available once the room key is returned to the housing office. Under no circumstances may an unregistered student maintain occupancy in campus housing. Students are expected to vacate campus housing and return their key no later than one week following complete withdrawal from the University.

Refunds of federal aid for students who received Title IV aid will be made according to the federally-mandated refund policy through 60% of the semester in the following order: 1) Unsubsidized Stafford Loan, 2) Subsidized Stafford Loan, 3) Perkins Loan, 4) PLUS Loan, 5) Federal Pell Grant, 6) Federal SEOG. Charges will be reduced and institutional and outside aid will be refunded through the sixth week according to the above schedule. Further information is available from the Office of Financial Aid.

Personal Expenses

In calculating costs for the year, the student should include personal items such as laundry and dry-cleaning, clothing, books, school supplies, membership dues in organizations, contributions to church and charity, recreation, travel, special health needs and a small reserve for miscellaneous items. For cost of attendance purposes (in addition to tuition, fees, room and board) Concordia University assumes $550 for books, $250 for travel, and $1,000 for miscellaneous personal expense for the year.

Financial Assistance

Concordia University attempts to make it possible for all who have the capacity and the desire for a Christian college education to obtain it, regardless of their financial resources. Returning students must apply before May 1st, the Priority Financial Aid Deadline. New students should have their FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) and the Concordia Application for Financial Assistance in by March 1st. Returning students need only submit the FAFSA, unless instructed otherwise by the Financial Aid Office.

The amount of financial aid awarded is based mainly on the applicant's financial need. As a general rule, the primary financial responsibility lies with the student and his or her parents. On the basis of this financial information, the University is able to determine the difference between educational costs and the amount a student and his or her parents can reasonably be expected to provide. This difference is defined as need.

How to Apply for Aid

New students must complete Concordia's Application for Financial Assistance (available for download from the Concordia Financial Aid website at www.cuaa.edu) and the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), also available on the Web at www.fafsa.ed.gov to apply for scholarships, grants, loans or work study at Concordia. Signed copies of the student's and parents' federal tax returns and W-2s are required of all new applicants. Other verifying information may also be required. For renewal of aid, the FAFSA must be completed each year as soon as possible, after January 1st.

After the above information has been received at Concordia, students will be advised of the financial assistance for which they are eligible.

This includes employment, loans, grants and scholarships administered by Concordia. Applications received by May 1st will receive full consideration for all assistance, but applicants are encouraged to apply before this date, as some types of federal aid are limited and are awarded on a first-come, first-awarded basis. Applications received after May 1st will be subject to the limitations of available institutional resources. As a general rule, one half of the grants, scholarships, and loans are applied toward each semester's charges. Eligible males of at least 18 years of age must be registered with selective service to receive Federal funds.

If you have any questions or need any forms, contact the Office of Financial Aid, Concordia University, 4090 Geddes Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48105 — Ph. (734) 995-7408.

Scholarships and Grants-In-Aid

Some of the scholarship money the University administers is assigned to students of outstanding academic achievement, as well as those displaying special music, dramatic, artistic or athletic abilities. Students must be enrolled full-time to receive Concordia scholarships.

It is expected that students receiving Concordia grants and scholarships will live on campus. Students should consult with the Financial Aid Office to determine changes to grants and scholarships that may occur if they live off campus.

Many local congregations, organizations and individuals offer some financial assistance to students. These students should also apply to their synodical districts.

All students are encouraged to apply for additional outside scholarships. Many such scholarships are listed on the internet at www.finaid.org.

Michigan Competitive Scholarship/Tuition Grant Program

The Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority provides scholarships and grants to eligible students who are Michigan residents attending a college or university in Michigan.

The Michigan Tuition Grant Program provides grants to eligible students at private colleges. No qualifying test is necessary. Tuition grants are awarded to students who are able to demonstrate financial need and are attending or planning to attend Concordia.

Michigan Competitive Scholarship awards are made on the basis of demonstrated need and the ACT score. High school seniors must take the ACT test on or before the October test date at any ACT testing center and have their score reported to the Michigan Scholarship Program.

This program is subject to yearly renewal by the state, based on the annual budget and approval by the legislature.

Students who meet the eligibility requirements for the Michigan Merit Award Scholarship (appropriate MEAP scores, ACT/SAT scores, and enrollment in a degree or certificate post-secondary institution in Michigan) may receive a one-time $2500 scholarship. This scholarship is divided equally over two academic years ($1250 per year).

All Michigan students attending Concordia need to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to apply for these Michigan programs. Entering freshmen should apply before March 1.

Student Employment

Students who find it necessary to earn part of their expenses have opportunities to do so, both on the Concordia campus and in Ann Arbor places of business.

To avoid an adverse effect on grades, it is suggested a student not exceed 15 hours of work per week.

Interested students should check the employment page of Concordia's web site, and apply to the appropriate department. Concordia participates in the Federal Work Study Program and the Michigan Work Study Program.

Veterans' Benefits

Veterans or children of veterans who seek government aid in continuing their education may secure pertinent information from the Veterans Administration Office by calling 1-888-442-4551. Once enrolled, further assistance is available from the Office of Financial Aid.

Loans

In some cases it is necessary for students to borrow to finance their education. Students should use caution in borrowing and generally should not rely primarily on loans.

There are two types of Federal Stafford loans, subsidized and unsubsidized. Subsidized loans are need-based, interest free, and payment free while the student remains in school at least half time. Unsubsidized loans can be used to replace family contribution but interest begins accruing immediately. The interest can either be paid while the student is in college, or capitalized. Students can obtain application information from Concordia's Office of Financial Aid.

Federal Parent Loans for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) may be requested by the dependent students' parents. A PLUS loan is limited to the total cost of education minus any other aid. Repayment of the PLUS loan begins while the student is still in school. Alternative loans are also available.

Concordia also participates in the Federal Perkins Loan Program. Students who show a high need are eligible for this low interest loan. These loans are scheduled for repayment after the student graduates or discontinue his education. Paperwork for the Perkins loan is completed through the Office of Financial Aid.

Renewal of Financial Aid

Concordia makes every effort to continue assistance to a student through his years of college. Renewal is based upon the following stipulations and principles:

1. A Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) should be filed between January 1 and April 15 in order to assure a timely application. Late applications will be accepted and processed as funds become available.
2. If requested, a signed copy of the parents' (if dependent) and the student's federal income tax form (1040, 1040A, or 1040E-Z and W-2s) must be submitted to the Office of Financial Aid by May 1.
3. Renewal of scholarships, grants, campus employment, and loans depends upon financial need as determined by the needs analysis form (FAFSA), the availability of funds, and meeting GPA, cumulative credits, and deadline requirements.
4. Any award or any portion thereof may be either declined by a student or revoked by Concordia if such assistance is not to the advantage of the student and the University.
5. Concordia will do everything possible to maintain the student's level of aid if the student's need has not changed significantly and/or poor academic performance has not caused a loss of scholarship eligibility.
6. Students must be in conformity with the financial aid satisfactory academic progress (SAP) policy.

Academic Progress

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) will be monitored after fall and spring semesters. For financial aid purposes, students are considered maintaining Satisfactory Academic Progress toward a degree if they meet the following requirements:

Terms at College	Credits Needed to Remain Eligible for Financial Aid	Cumulative GPA
1	8	1.5
2	16	1.5
3	25	1.7
4	34	2.0
5	44	2.0
6	54	2.0
7	65	2.0
8	76	2.0
9	88	2.0
10	100	2.0
11	113	2.0
12	128	2.0

Transfer students attending Concordia for the first time will enter Concordia meeting SAP. If a student is half-time, six to eleven hours, one-half of the above increment will be applied. A student who is less than half-time will not have to meet the above standard. Courses retaken are counted toward SAP only if the student did not previously receive credit for that course. SAP for students with incompletes will be reevaluated once the "I" becomes a letter grade. Students may receive aid for two terms while on probation. After the 1st semester of probation, students who were previously placed on financial aid probation will again be evaluated. If they are still not meeting the SAP requirements, they will be placed on financial aid academic probation for a second semester. Students will receive written notification of their status. Failure to meet the SAP requirements at the end of the academic year will result in termination of eligibility for financial aid for the following year.

Students may appeal their loss of eligibility for aid by submitting to the Office of Financial Aid a written explanation of any extenuating circumstances, such as personal illness or injury, or a major illness or death in one's family. A Financial Aid Committee will evaluate appeals on a case-by-case basis and a timely decision will be made in writing to the student.

Veterans and others receiving Veterans Administration benefits must also meet the above stated standards. After a probationary period, the Veterans Administration will be notified and VA benefits will be terminated. Reinstatement of aid may occur when standards of progress and GPA requirements are once again met.

Student Services

Residence Halls

All full-time traditional students are required to live in campus residence halls. Only continuing education students, married students, students who are 21 years and older or of junior class standing, or students who live with members of their immediate family are permitted to live off campus. Limited private rooms and married student housing is available by contacting the student services office. The Vice President of Student Services may grant exceptions to this policy.

Rooms in the residence halls accommodate two students. Each student is furnished a bed, mattress, desk, desk chair, dresser, and a wardrobe. Students are expected to furnish their own blankets, sheets, towels, and personal articles.

Concordia is a substance free environment and policies of alcohol and other drug usage on campus are distributed to every student. Education is provided for those who violate this policy.

University Food Services

All students living in campus housing must participate in the food service program of the university. Commuter students also may open a food service account. Students with special dietary needs are requested to submit written statements from a medical doctor indicating their needs. In rare instances that the food service cannot meet those needs, the student may be exempted from the food service program upon approval of the Director of the Food Service and the Vice President of Student Services.

Academic Resource Center

The Academic Resource Center (ARC) provides academic assistance to Concordia students. Peer tutors and writing consultants are available to help students with class assignments. The ARC can also provide instruction in study skills such as time management, note-taking, reading, and textbook annotation. In addition, the ARC maintains a web site with on-line writing help and links for math, sciences, foreign languages and music. The ARC is located in the Library.

The Counseling Center

The Counseling Center is a resource to students in personal and professional counseling and development. Career counseling and assistance in the job search process are also available as well as confidential personal counseling. The Counseling Center is located in the Student Services Building.

Campus Life and Leadership

Concordia offers activities for students to broaden their social and cultural experience on campus. These activities serve to develop leadership in addition to enhancing student life. Opportunities include: theater, music, intramural sports, exhibits, and athletics. Leadership opportunities include: Spiritual Life Representative, Resident Assistant, and Senator.

Testing Services

Concordia University participates in the national educational testing programs listed below.

American College Test or Scholastic Assessment Test

Completion of the ACT or SAT I is required of all applicants who have fewer than 12 college credits to transfer. The ACT is preferred, but the SAT is also accepted. The ACT profiles (test results) help students make decisions about college and career plans. They are used in academic advising and course placement, as appropriate. Entering students should take the ACT or SAT during their junior or senior year of high school, if possible. The ACT or SAT may be taken on a national test date at a national test center or by appointment at Concordia University's Admission Office. However, students who wish to participate in intercollegiate athletics must take either test on a national test date at a national test center. For further information, contact any high school guidance counselor or Concordia University's Admission Office.

Credits Earned Through Standardized Tests

Credits may be earned through the following standardized testing programs:

- Advanced Placement Program (AP)
- College Level Examination Program (CLEP)
- Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support (DANTES)
- Proficiency Examination Program: Regents College Examinations (PEP: RCE)

The Coordinator of Testing maintains a list of the specific texts which are acceptable from these testing programs. The list includes test names, passing scores, the number and level (lower/upper) of credits awarded if the test is passed, and equivalent Concordia courses if such exist. Partial credit for scores below the designated passing score will not be granted. Please contact the Registrar's Office for further information.

Campus Activities

Concordia offers a variety of activities for students to broaden their social and cultural experience on campus. These activities serve to develop leadership in addition to enhancing student life.

Theatre

Concordia University has an active theatre program with three major productions each year in the fully equipped Krefl Center Black Box Theatre. Additional opportunities exist for students to directed and/or design their own productions. Auditions are open to any student in good academic standing.

Music

Concordia Choir, Concordia Chorale, Concordia Wind Ensemble, Brass Ensemble and Handbells are open to students and may be taken for credit or audit.

Intramural Sports

Both men and women students are encouraged to participate regardless of ability levels. Opportunities exist for non-competitive involvement.

Concerts, Speakers, Exhibits

A calendar of special events is scheduled annually through the Student Services Office and Concordia's Office of Marketing and Communication. Events include art exhibitions, touring performance groups, recitals and guest lectures to list just a few. In addition, the Concordia Visiting Artist Series brings to campus each year nationally and internationally prominent artists, musicians, and writers, who perform, conduct workshops, and interact with students in classes.

Athletics

The intercollegiate athletic program at Concordia includes soccer, track, cross country, basketball, golf and baseball for men and volleyball, soccer, track, cross country, basketball, golf and softball for women. All sports are governed by the National Association for Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA).

The Cardinal's Nest

This facility located in the Student Union is the evening and late-night snack bar of the campus. Regularly scheduled formal and informal events include dances and coffee house nights.

Student Organizations

The primary vehicle for student involvement on campus is the Student Association. The goals of the Association are to promote individual growth in Christian character, to facilitate interaction and involvement by students with others in the campus community, and to provide opportunities for growth in leadership and service in the church and the world.

The activities of the Student Association are directed by the elected leadership in the Student Senate. Leadership and participation are facilitated through the various committees and councils of the Senate. In addition, the Senate coordinates and allocates the funding for other groups and organizations in response to requests, subject to availability of student funds.

The Student Activities Council (SAC) is responsible for the overall development of a varied co-curricular campus program. To this end, SAC plans, implements, and evaluates campus events.

The primary elected and appointed residential life leadership groups are the Student Senate, the Resident Assistants (RAs), and the Spiritual Life Representatives (SLRs).

There are many other positions available through which students may develop leadership skills and experience. Other organizations include special interest clubs and off-campus ministries.

Study Abroad Programs

Studying abroad for a semester is something a student cherishes forever, a life-changing experience shared by tens of thousands of American students annually. Concordia University, therefore, encourages students to enrich their education through affordable overseas study programs that add a vibrant cross-cultural component to the traditional undergraduate experience. Concordia students can step out of the textbook and immerse themselves in the music of Mozart, the culture of Spain, the splendor of Italy, or the grandeur and vitality of London, while earning academic credit from Concordia.

Students can select from a variety of study abroad programs sponsored by Concordia University in partnership with AHA International, including those in London, Vienna, Macerata, Segovia and Cologne. As a member of MCSA, the Midwest Consortium for Study Abroad, Concordia University also offers students the opportunity to study in the summer in Dublin.

Students receive academic credit for all courses taken overseas (12-16 credit hours per semester). With careful planning, students can study abroad and still graduate on time since at least six hours of core requirements can usually be fulfilled through an overseas program. The study abroad experience often takes place during the junior or senior year, but undergraduates are encouraged to begin planning for study abroad while they are freshmen or sophomores. Financial aid can be applied to these programs.

Semester in London

A dynamic, cosmopolitan world capital, London offers incomparable access to museums, galleries, West End theatres, architectural jewels, and historic landmarks. Concordia undergraduates can delve into this rich cultural heritage during either the fall or spring semester since the University participates in a humanities program at the London Centre

Most courses at the Centre, located within walking distance of numerous museums and galleries, are taught by British faculty who are practitioners as well as teachers in the disciplines of literature, theatre, history, art, and political science. Affiliated with AHA International, the London Centre offers an extraordinary itinerary of excursions and theatrical performances designed to enhance the in-class experience. Included in this experiential program are guided excursions to major sites of British culture and history such as Stonehenge, Oxford, Canterbury, Stratford-on-Avon, and Scotland or Wales.

Semester in Vienna, Austria

In Vienna, with its majestic ambience, students move beyond their textbooks to explore the array of cultural, musical and academic resources of this capital that serves as a diplomatic center and focal point for modern European culture.

Tailored to the Americans and taught in English, courses are designed by both American and local university faculty to take advantage of the Viennese setting. Vienna program participants live in the homes of host families. All student participants take four semester hours of German language instruction at their appropriate level, including beginning German. Students make course-related field trips to sites in and around Vienna along with two weekend excursions.

Semester in Macerata, Italy

In Macerata, nestled in the hills of the Marches region a short distance from the Adriatic Sea, students can experience both modern Italian culture and Romanesque, Renaissance and Baroque architecture.

The program offers courses in Italian/European culture, art, and history along with a required course in Italian language usually at the beginning level. Students have the option of living in an apartment with other students or, on a limited basis, with an Italian family. Students make field trips to surrounding regional sites and weekend excursions to Florence and Rome.

Semester in Segovia, Spain

For students who desire a minor in Spanish, Concordia offers a language-intensive program in Segovia, where students earn at least twelve semester hours of credit toward their language minor. Located sixty miles north of Madrid, Segovia is one of Spain's most beautiful and historically interesting sites.

To apply for this rigorous study of Spanish language and culture, students must have the equivalent of two years of college-level Spanish. Homestay accommodations, course work, and program excursions help make the semester in Spain meaningful, especially for future educators.

For more detailed information about any of these programs, contact the Overseas Study Coordinator.

Summer Term in Dublin

Students can experience Irish history and culture while living with a host family in Dublin. During this five-week midsummer MCSA program, students can gain an understanding of Irish history, literature, media, or theatre.

For more detailed information about these programs, contact the Overseas Study Coordinator or go to www.cuaa.edu/academics/study.abroad.

London May Term

Concordia also offers a three week, intensive term in London, running the last three weeks of May, concurrent with May Term courses offered on campus. Students are housed in furnished apartments in south London, and a number of courses are taught by Concordia faculty. For more detailed information about the May 2006 term, contact the program director, Dr. Mark Looker.

Concordia University System Visiting Student Program

This program allows and facilitates any student in good standing at one Concordia campus to attend another Concordia campus for one semester or a full school year. During that time, the student is still formally enrolled at Concordia University, Ann Arbor and would not formally transfer. All credits and grades earned on the other campus are counted as if they were earned at Ann Arbor. Tuition is determined by and paid to Concordia University, Ann Arbor and financial aid is still arranged through this campus.

Room and board, if needed, is paid to the campus being visited at the rates established by that "host" campus. Special fees may also need to be paid to the "host" campus. Transportation must be arranged by the student.

Information about this program and about any of the other campuses is available from the Office of the Registrar. Viewbooks, catalogs, course schedules, student handbooks, and some videotapes are available to examine.

Official Records & Release of Information

Official records are those records or files which directly relate to a student and are maintained by the college in accordance with policies and procedures stipulated in the Faculty Handbook. The official records of students are considered confidential information and, as such, shall be kept private from third parties. Every student in attendance, or who has been in attendance, has the right to inspect and review his/her official records. Concordia stipulates the following as official student records and names the corresponding position holders as responsible for their administration, retention and disposal:

Academic Advisement Files	Academic Advisors/Registrar
Academic Programs	Program Directors
Admission Files	Director of Admissions
Athletic Records	Director of Athletics
Business and Accounting Records	Business Office Manager
Church Worker Placement Files	Program Directors
Disciplinary Files	VP of Student Services
Financial Aid Files	Director of Financial Aid
Health Records	VP of Student Services
Standardized Test Results/Transcripts	Registrar

Provisions can be made for the periodic routine destruction of non-permanent records and non-current disciplinary records. Each office listed above is responsible for publishing a statement detailing the following: (1) the length of time a record is maintained, (2) the kind of material(s) which will be kept in the record, (3) individuals and/or offices which will have access to the records and, (4) policy for disposal of documents.

Exceptions

1. Unsuccessful applicants for admission to Concordia are not eligible for the considerations noted above.
2. Parents of Concordia students are considered third parties. The student must sign a waiver authorizing the appropriate office to release information to parents or others.
3. An instructor's own records, when kept in the sole possession of the maker and not accessible or revealed to any other individual except a substitute instructor, are not considered official records of Concordia.
4. Records which simply reflect the student as an employee of the institution are exempted from the definition of official records.
5. Records created or maintained by a physician, nurse, psychiatrist, psychologist or other recognized professional, or paraprofessional acting in his/her official capacity and used only for treating the student and not disclosed to any other individual except for those providing treatment, are exempted.

Right to Amend

A student who believes the information in an official record is inaccurate or misleading or violates the student's privacy may request that Concordia amend the record.

If a request for amendment is refused, the student may request a hearing to challenge the content of the record within twenty one days. The student must be given notice of the date and time. The hearing will be conducted by a member of the President's Cabinet who does not have a direct interest in the outcome. The student must have full opportunity to present evidence relative to the issues and has the option of being represented by an individual, including an attorney. If Concordia decides not to change the record, the student must be so informed in writing and given the opportunity to place in the record a statement commenting upon the information in the official record. This statement must be maintained with the record as long as the record is maintained.

Release of Information with Student Consent

Concordia may not disclose information from a student's official record without first obtaining the written consent of the student, except under certain limited circumstances noted below. Any consent for disclosure must be signed and dated by the student and must specify the records to be disclosed, the purpose(s) of the disclosure and the party or class of parties to whom the disclosure may be made.

Concordia may disclose without prior consent personally identifiable information regarding a present or former student if it is "Directory Information" from the three following categories:

- Category I: Name, addresses (including permanent, local, and e-mail), current class schedule, telephone numbers, dates of attendance, class level (e.g. sophomore, graduate student), photographs, birth date, place of birth
- Category II: Previous institution(s) attended, major field of study, awards, honors (includes Dean's list), degree(s) conferred (including dates), full time/part time status, number of credits carrying in current semester
- Category III: Past and present participation in officially recorded athletic and co-curricular activities, physical factors (i.e. height and weight of athletes)

Although such information may be released without student consent, students may request information contained in any or all of the above categories not be released to any and all parties, except as stipulated below. Such a request will be made in writing to the registrar's office.

- A student's consent is not required if a record is to be disclosed to other administrators, faculty or staff within the University who have a legitimate educational interest in the information.
- Information may be disclosed to determine the eligibility for student aid, the amount of it, the conditions which will be imposed regarding it, and to enforce such terms or conditions.
- Information about a student can be released without consent to organizations conducting studies for, or on behalf of, the University to develop, validate, or administer predictive tests, administer student aid programs or improve instruction or retention.
- Accrediting organizations may be given information about students in order to carry out their functions.
- Concordia may release a record without student consent to comply with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena.

The University may disclose education records in certain circumstances:

- To appropriate parties in a health or safety emergency
- To the official of another school, upon request, to which a student intends to enroll
- To Officials of the U.S. Dept. of Education, the Comptroller General, to state and local educational authorities, in connection with state or federally supported education programs
- To appropriate parties the results of an institutional disciplinary proceeding against the alleged of a crime of violence
- To military recruiters per the Solomon Amendment

Additional exceptions stipulated by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, will be honored.

Record of Disclosure

Concordia must maintain a record of disclosure of official records to third parties. This record must be kept as long as the file is maintained. This record of disclosures is for inspection by the student.

Social Security Privacy

Concordia University–Ann Arbor (CUAA) protects the student's right of privacy of information and recognizes the importance of maintaining the confidentiality of student records while performing effective functions of the University. In this effort, CUAA assigns each student a unique Student ID to be used in place of the Social Security Number (SSN).

Social Security Numbers are collected from all students and are required for financial aid and specific reporting functions as required by the State and Federal government. Social Security Numbers may be used for mailing of transcripts if the student makes the request, reporting to the National Student Clearinghouse, attendance verifications, degree reporting, and loan tracking.

The Student ID number is used whenever the student registers for classes, makes a payment, or other internal functions. The Student ID will print on any internal hard copy material such as grade lists, attendance rosters, bills, etc. Copies of materials with a student's ID or SSN are destroyed by shredding when not retained in a secure area. Any original hard copy material, such as applications, with the SSN listed, is treated as confidential material and is destroyed by shredding after the student has not registered for five or more years.

Faculty and staff are notified annually of privacy procedures and FERPA requirements for any form of verbal or written communication.

Academic Regulations and Procedures

Registration

Prior to each semester and before attending any class, Concordia University students must register and arrange for the payment of all tuition and fees. Dates and deadlines for registration are available from the Registrar's Office. Registration is not final and complete until all obligations to the Business Office have been met or satisfactory arrangements have been made. Concordia University reserves the right to drop students from courses due to non-payment of tuition and/or fees.

Classification of Students

A full-time student at Concordia University is one who has satisfied the entrance requirements, has been formally admitted to the University, has completed final registration, and is currently enrolled for at least 12 semester credit hours of undergraduate studies or 9 semester credit hours of graduate studies.

The part-time student is one who has satisfied the requirements for admission to the University, but who carries less than 12 semester credit hours of undergraduate studies or less than 9 semester credit hours of graduate studies.

The classification of students is as follows:

- Freshmen: Fewer than 28 semester credits earned
- Sophomores: 28-59 semester credits earned
- Juniors: 60-95 semester credits earned
- Seniors: 96+ semester credits earned
- Post-B.A. /B.S.: Baccalaureate students earning additional credits of undergraduate work, but not following a master's degree program
- Graduate Students: Baccalaureate students following a master's degree program

Credit Hours

All credits since the Fall semester of 1980 are semester credits. For a traditional three-credit class, there will normally be three 55-minute or two 85-minute class meetings per week for 15 weeks; 90 hours for reading, study and the preparation of papers or projects; and a final examination. Some courses require a laboratory session or studio work, where two to three hours of such activity is the equivalent of one hour of lecture/discussion. Accelerated and on-line classes may be offered in different configurations and require less class time and more outside time for individual learning.

Academic Load

Since the minimum number of credits required for graduation is 128, a student must average at least 16 credits per semester to graduate by the end of eight semesters. Students may voluntarily register for a lighter load, or they may be advised to do so. Twelve or more credits in a semester is considered full-time for undergraduate students to be eligible for living on campus, financial aid, and NAIA athletic eligibility.

Students will be required to pay the established rate per credit in addition to normal tuition for any enrollment above 18 credits per semester.

Adding, Dropping, and Withdrawing From a Class

A student must add a scheduled course by following the procedures required by the Registrar's Office before the course begins. Registration is also allowed during the first two weeks of the semester for 15-week classes, or before the second class meeting for specially scheduled classes (except as noted below). The instructor must approve any addition after the first week of the semester for 15-week classes or after the first class meeting for specially scheduled classes. To add a class after the second week of the semester for 15-week classes or after the second class meeting for specially scheduled classes, the student must obtain the approval of the instructor and the Dean of the relevant school. The student is encouraged to discuss this decision with her/his academic advisor.

A student must drop any course by following the procedures required by the Registrar's Office before the class begins. Courses may also be dropped during the first two weeks of the semester for 15-week classes, or before the second class meeting for specially scheduled classes (except as noted below). The student is encouraged to discuss this decision with the instructor and his/her academic advisor. No record of such classes is retained on the student's permanent transcript.

A student must withdraw from any class by following the procedures required by the Registrar's Office on or before the last day of classes (excluding final exams) for 15-week classes or the day before the last meeting for specially scheduled classes (except as noted below). The student is encouraged to discuss this decision with the instructor and his/her academic advisor. The student will have a grade of W indicated on her/his permanent transcript. The grade of W carries no academic credit and has no effect on grade point average calculation. Accelerated Degree Program (ADP) students are charged a $25 per course processing fee to drop or withdraw from a course.

For one-day seminars, the student must register by following the procedures required by the Registrar's Office at least fourteen days before the scheduled meeting, unless the instructor approves a late addition in writing. The student must use the required procedures to drop the class before the scheduled starting time or to withdraw from the class by the day before the final assignment is due.

For self-paced or other individualized courses (except correspondence courses), the student must conform to the deadlines for 15-week classes in the semester when registration occurs. Guided studies, independent studies, and honors work fall within this category. The appropriate dean must approve exceptions to the above timeline. ADP and Graduate students must conform to the normal length of time allotted to the course for self-paced or other individualized courses (except correspondence courses).

For courses taught by correspondence, the student shall have one month to drop the course, through the last scheduled day of the class to withdraw, and up to six months to complete the course. The appropriate dean must approve exceptions to this timeline.

The Registrar may drop or withdraw a student from a class at any time, with or without the student's consent, if the instructor confirms that the student never attended class or participated in any related learning activity. A written request is required to convert a grade of F to a grade of W. The Registrar shall determine the effective date for such withdrawals. The student will have a grade of W indicated on her/his permanent transcript.

Summary of Deadlines

	Add without instructor's permission	Add with instructor's permission	Drop	Withdraw
15-week classes	End of 1st week	End of 2nd week	End of 2nd week	Last school day before finals
ADP, Graduate, and specially scheduled classes	Before 1st meeting	Before 2nd meeting	Before 2nd meeting	Before last meeting
Self-paced classes	End of 1st week	End of 2nd week	End of 2nd week	Last school day before finals
Correspondence classes	Before start date	Not applicable	Within 1st month	Last scheduled class date
One-day seminars	14 days before meeting	Before meeting	Before meeting	Before final assignment is due

NOTE: Athletes must have the Director of Athletics signature on Add, Drop, or Withdrawal Forms before they can be processed in the Registrar's Office.

Academic Advising

Incoming students are assigned faculty advisors in their declared major, minor or program to assist in the explanation of academic requirements and planning their coursework at Concordia University. Incoming Liberal Arts freshmen with an undeclared major will be assigned to their GST182-Freshmen Seminar professor for academic advising. Students may change their advisor at any time by picking up a Declaration of Advisor Form in the Registrar's Office and obtaining the signature of their new advisor.

Final responsibility for meeting all graduation requirements rests with the student.

Withdrawal from the University

All complete withdrawals from Concordia University must be done officially through the Office of Student Services. Grades of W (withdrawal) will be recorded for all students who officially withdraw from the University by the last school day prior to the beginning of the final examination period. Final grades (as assigned by the instructor) will be given to any student who leaves without officially withdrawing, and a refund will not be issued. The Registrar may change grades of F to grades of W if the student never attended the class (requires a written request from the student). A form for withdrawal from the University may be obtained from the Director of Campus Life or the Registrar.

Guided Studies

A course which has an approved syllabus but is not available during the time period required by the student to graduate may be taken as a guided study with approval of the instructor and permission of the appropriate dean. Guided Study Applications are available in the Registrar's Office. The limitations and requirements for this type of study are set by faculty policy. The list of criteria is available from the Registrar's Office or the dean. Students applying for a guided study must have a cumulative GPA of 2.0000 or higher.

Independent Studies

Independent study is a form of self-directed learning that goes beyond coursework that is offered at Concordia University and is pursued by a student following a written plan of study developed in consultation with a supervising instructor. Independent Study Applications are available in the Registrar's Office. The limitations and requirements for this type of study are set by faculty policy. The list of criteria is available from the Registrar's Office or the dean. Students applying for an independent study must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0000 or higher.

Auditors

A student who is in good academic standing may register for a maximum of four credit hours per semester as an auditor. Requirements for auditing will be specified by the instructor when he/she approves the audit. An auditor does not receive credit for the course, but the audited course will be listed on the student's permanent transcript with a grade of AU unless the requirements are not met. If requirements are not met, a grade of W will be assigned. No additional tuition is charged to a traditional full-time student for auditing a course if the total semester hours for credit fall within the normal billing range. Part-time and/or non-traditional students may register as auditors under the same conditions as traditional students and they will be charged one-third of the regular tuition for the audited course. Guest students may register as auditors and pay one-third of the regular tuition.

Grading System

Grades are assigned for all courses after completion. They are measures of a student's achievement as indicated by class performance and examinations. Concordia uses the following letter grades and quality points:

A = 4.0000	C = 2.0000
A- = 3.6667	C- = 1.6667
B+ = 3.3333	D+ = 1.3333
B = 3.0000	D = 1.0000
B- = 2.6667	D- = 0.6667
C+ = 2.3333	F = 0.0000

- I = Incomplete. This grade is assigned, at the discretion of the instructor, when the course requirements have not been met. It must be removed by a date specified by the instructor that is no more than 120 days after the course ends, or the Incomplete automatically converts to the alternate grade specified by the instructor.
- W = Authorized Withdrawal, zero quality points, no credit earned, no affect on GPA
- P = Pass, zero quality points, credit earned, no affect on GPA
- NC = No Credit, zero quality points, no credit earned, no affect on GPA
- AU = Audit, zero quality points, no credit earned, no affect on GPA (see "Auditors" above)

If a student believes an error was made concerning a course grade, the student should contact the instructor immediately. The procedure for formally appealing a course grade is available at the Registrar's Office.

Quality points are allocated for each credit earned to provide numerical evaluation of a student's scholastic record. Quality points for each credit are assigned as indicated above. To determine quality points for a course, simply multiply the credit hours by the quality points allotted for the assigned grade.

To calculate a grade point average for courses completed by the student, the total number of quality points accumulated is divided by the total number of credits attempted for a letter grade (excluding the total number of credits for the following grades: AU, CR, I, NC, P, TR and W). Thus, if a student has earned 97.3333 points for 30 credits attempted, the cumulative grade point average is $97.3333 \div 30$ or 3.2444. When a course is repeated, only the most recent grade and credits earned will be used in computing the grade point average. Repeat grades are used in the grade point average and total credits earned calculations for courses in which repeats are allowed for additional credit (e.g. music ensembles and advanced art courses).

The cumulative grade point average is calculated only on coursework taken at Concordia University. In considering the admission of transfer students to teacher education, all grades, including transfer credits, may be used to evaluate major/minor/program grade point averages.

Pass/No Credit

In a given semester, the student may elect the pass/no credit option for any class that fits into one of the following categories: one course of 2-4 credit hours; one or more one-credit course(s). A maximum of 10 semester hours of pass/no credit courses may be included in any degree program. The pass/no credit option may not be used for any course in the student's major, minor or program. Practicum and other courses that are available only on a pass/no credit basis, such as directed teaching, internships, fieldwork courses, field trips, and the like are not included in these limitations. The student must state his/her intention to elect the pass/no credit option to the Registrar, in writing, by the last school day of classes (excluding final exams) or the day before the last meeting of specially scheduled classes. First semester freshmen are not eligible for the pass/no credit option. An earned grade of C- or higher will result in a transcripted grade of P (PASS-credit awarded), and an earned grade of D+ or lower will result in a transcripted grade of NC (NO CREDIT-no credit awarded). P and NC grades do not affect the student's grade point average.

Academic Probation and Dismissal

All students are expected to maintain satisfactory academic progress toward graduation. Any student with a cumulative grade point average (at the end of any semester) lower than 2.0000 (C average) is placed on academic probation for the next enrolled semester. The academic probation will be noted on the student's transcript.

A student on academic probation will be required to limit his/her course load to a maximum of 14 credit hours while on probation. An accepted transfer student entering with a grade point average below 2.0000 is subject to the 14 credit hour limit. Exceptions may be granted by the Vice President of Academics.

Students who remain on academic probation for three consecutive semesters will be academically dismissed and will not be eligible to enroll in classes following the third semester. The Admissions Council may recommend that any student whose cumulative grade point average is below 1.0000 (D average) be dismissed immediately. Under exceptional circumstances, the student may appeal academic dismissal to the Admissions Council. A dismissed student may qualify for readmission on the basis of evidence of satisfactory performance in college-level work through correspondence courses, summer courses, or courses taken at another regionally accredited college. Readmission of dismissed students is the decision of the Admissions Council.

Class Attendance

It is expected that a student enrolled in a course will attend class regularly. Registration assumes that the student is not merely interested in receiving credit for the class but wishes to contribute to it as well. Program policies or individual faculty members can specify attendance policies and/or requirements which may affect grades.

Repeating Courses

Students may choose to repeat a course (once or multiple times). While all grades are maintained on the student transcript, only the most recent grade and credits earned are used in computing the grade point average and total credits earned. If a student repeats a course in which he/she earned a low passing grade and earns a higher grade, the most recent grade is used in the cumulative grade point average calculation. If a student repeats a course in which he/she earned a low passing grade in an earlier attempt and earns an F grade in a subsequent attempt, then the F grade is the most recent attempt and is used in the cumulative grade point average calculation and the student loses the credit.

Students planning to repeat courses for additional credit are not required to check with the Registrar first, but they may want to check with their academic advisor.

Courses repeated to raise the student's cumulative grade point average must be taken at Concordia University, Ann Arbor. In the case of variable credit courses, the repeated course must be for the same number of credit hours as the first course, if it is to be used as a replacement for cumulative grade point average calculation.

Progress Reports

Grades are available to students at the end of each semester. An informational report of current standing in a course may be made to the student at the discretion of the instructor, if the student is having academic difficulties or attendance problems in a course.

Transfer of Credit

A student entering with advanced standing must have an official transcript sent directly to the Office of Admission from the registrar at each collegiate institution previously attended. Official transcripts are required for an accurate evaluation of transfer credits. All transcripts presented in person by the student are unofficial (even if issued to student in a sealed envelope) as are any evaluations based upon them.

For transfer credit, Concordia University will consider college-level credits originally earned at any regionally accredited institution of post-secondary education or through the military services (as recognized by the American Council on Education) regardless of the means by which the credits were earned at the originating institution. Credits accepted by Concordia's Registrar may be used toward university-wide requirements, and they must be approved by the appropriate division/dean/council to fulfill program/major/minor requirements. No credits from courses with grades below C- (1.6667) will be accepted for transfer. Grades of "pass" or "satisfactory" or any similar term will be considered as C- (1.6667) or better unless the official transcript indicates a different policy at the originating institution. Grades for transfer credits are not recorded on the Concordia transcript but may influence grade point averages for some programs/majors/minors. After a student is enrolled at Concordia, courses taken at other regionally accredited institutions should be approved in advance and in writing through the Registrar's Office.

Facsimile and Electronic Transmission of Documents

Faxed or electronically transmitted documents are not considered official documents. While these documents may be helpful in advising and counseling students, official documents, sent directly from the sending school's registrar's office to Concordia, must be received following facsimile and/or electronic transmission for Concordia to take official action.

General Education Transfer Credit

A transfer student, who enrolls as a full-time baccalaureate student and has partially completed traditional general education requirements, shall complete the remaining core requirements with courses from Concordia's General Studies Curriculum. Exceptions can be granted only through Michigan Uniform Undergraduate Guest Applications or a Petition for Substitution with the appropriate signature(s) of approval (both forms are available at the Registrar's Office). An evaluation of transfer credit is done by the Registrar and may be appealed to the General Studies Division chair. Courses to complete general studies requirements are selected when preparing a degree completion plan with an academic advisor.

Credits Earned During Military Service

Veterans may receive appropriate credit for education preparation and experience acquired while in the armed forces. A veteran with an honorable discharge from active duty can receive such credit in accordance with the recommendations of the American Council on Education. Veterans should contact the Registrar's Office for assistance and should submit a copy of their Dd214 and an official military transcript (AARTS-Army, SMART-Navy/Marines, and Community College of the Air Force).

Attendance at Neighboring Universities and Colleges

Students who would like to supplement Concordia's curriculum offerings may consider attending other area schools such as the University of Michigan, Eastern Michigan University, Cleary University or Washtenaw Community College on a part-time basis while they are attending Concordia. Written approval from the Registrar is required before enrolling in courses outside of Concordia University–Ann Arbor. Michigan Uniform Undergraduate Guest Applications for all Michigan colleges and universities are available. The student is responsible for tuition charges from another institution, and those credit hours are not considered part of the student's Concordia course load, unless a signed consortium agreement is executed through the financial aid office or an articulation agreement exists between the two schools.

Earning an Additional Baccalaureate Degree

Anyone who has already earned a baccalaureate degree from Concordia University–Ann Arbor or any other regionally accredited college or university may apply for admission to seek an additional baccalaureate degree under the following conditions:

The student must meet all degree requirements (including general studies) with the exception of the requirement for 128 credits; however, the student must earn at least 30 credits (beyond those used for any previous baccalaureate degree) at Concordia University–Ann Arbor.

Any major or minor included in a previous degree cannot be included in the new degree; however, a previous minor can be the basis for a new major.

Academic Recognition

Commencement and Graduation

Eligibility to participate in commencement

Each student is eligible to participate in one commencement ceremony per degree/diploma. Approximately four months before each commencement, the Registrar's Office will make a Commencement Application available to each junior, senior and post-BA student. The application must be completed and returned by the indicated deadline in order to participate in the commencement ceremony and/or receive a diploma. Diplomas are distributed only when all Concordia academic requirements are met and all financial obligations to the University are fulfilled.

Commencement with Honors

Cumulative grade point averages are based only on course credit earned at Concordia. Honors recognition is recorded in the commencement program and on the diploma but not on the transcript. Faculty policy stipulates that only 15 percent of the participants in each commencement are so recognized. Additional details are available in the faculty policy or at the Registrar's Office. Only degree-seeking undergraduate students are eligible for honors.

Eligibility to receive diploma

A student is eligible to receive a diploma after meeting all academic requirements and financial obligations. The diploma is sent to the student's address on record in the Registrar's Office as soon as it is available.

Eligibility to receive a baccalaureate or associate transcript

A student is eligible to receive an official transcript indicating successful completion of a degree immediately upon meeting all academic requirements and financial obligations. An unofficial transcript is mailed to the student immediately upon the completion of all academic requirements. Additional transcripts may be sent upon written request from the student. There is no fee for transcripts.

Dean's List

A student who completes 12 or more graded credits during a given semester and has a grade point average for that semester of 3.5000 or higher is eligible for the Dean's List for that term. At least 12 of the semester credits must earn letter grades other than P, NC, AU, I, or W to qualify. All I–Incomplete grades for the given semester must have a final grade assigned for a student to be eligible for the Dean's List.

Division Scholars

Each spring, divisions may elect a limited number of students for recognition who have distinguished themselves in their field.

Areas of Study

The requirements described on the following pages are continuously updated in order to provide students with the best possible educational opportunities. The listings, therefore, are subject to revision as announced.

Programs/Majors/Minors

These terms are used to describe courses of study listed on the following pages.

Program is the term used to describe the courses and requirements for a specific professional preparation and do not include major/minor requirements.

Majors are blocks of courses in an academic subject or a field of several related subjects. Majors require a minimum of 30 semester hours of credit. Majors, however, may require more than 30 credits.

Minors are similar to majors but require a minimum of 20 credits. Minors, however, may require more than 20 credits.

Emphases are particular sets of requirements within a major that differentiates areas of study in that major. Typically this takes the form of a specific set of courses that the student is required to take within the major in order to complete the given emphasis. It does not require credits over and above the number required by the major itself.

Concentrations are particular sets of requirements accompanying and in addition to the major that enhance the learning outcomes of the major. Concentrations require a minimum of nine credits in addition to the associated major.

Emphases and concentrations must be taken as part of or in addition to the required credits in the major.

Credits listed in this catalog are always semester credits.

Guidelines for Individualized Majors and Minors

Students may design individualized majors or minors if the existing curriculum does not meet their specific needs. Such sequences must be consistent with the mission and purpose of Concordia University. The number of credits required must be consistent with the number required in standard majors or minors at Concordia University, Ann Arbor. The following additional criteria apply:

- a. The quality of the proposed major or minor must be comparable to that of generally approved majors or minors;
- b. Two-thirds of the major and one-half of the minor must be at the upper level;
- c. No more than one-third of the courses offered for the major/minor may be in General Studies;
- d. No more than one-third of the credits may be accepted in transfer;
- e. Independent studies and internships are limited to forty percent of the major or minor;
- f. Students must take courses from more than one faculty member.

Students take the initiative in designing the curriculum. They prepare a one-to-three word title and rationale for their design, with a listing of courses to be completed. The design may be disciplinary in nature, interdisciplinary, or thematic. It may stand alone as a sequence. If a minor, it may offer collateral support for a primary sequence or career goal. Students select one or more advisors and obtain approval of the division(s) involved in the major or minor upon recommendation of the advisors. The Vice President of Academics oversees the process, approves each individualized major and minor, and initiates evaluation through the Assessment Council.

Degree Requirements

Revisions in degree requirements and academic regulations take effect on the first day of July following their adoption by the faculty and the Board of Regents. Students at Concordia University will normally follow the degree requirements and academic regulations in effect at the time of their admission; however, a student who changes a major, minor, or program may be required to follow the requirements in effect at the time of the change. Such a decision would be based on the availability of required courses and may be appealed to the appropriate division or dean. Revised requirements by government agencies or certification associations may influence the student's degree requirements regardless of previously stated requirements.

Students are expected to read the regulations of the University and to conform to them. The student, not the University or any member of the faculty or staff, is responsible for meeting the requirements for a degree. Petition forms for the substitution or waiver of a requirement are available from the Registrar and must be approved according to the faculty policy.

Registration and payment of fees imply an agreement by the student to conform to regulations of the University. Failure to meet obligations to the University, financial or otherwise, will be cause for refusal to issue a degree, transcript, and diploma.

Final responsibility for meeting all graduation requirements rests with the student.

Master of Science Degree (M.S.)

Degree requirements are established by each area in which a graduate degree is offered. See page 107 for further details.

Bachelor of Arts Degree (B.A.): Accelerated Degree Program

Degree requirements are established by each area in which a bachelor's degree is offered. See page 96 for further details.

Bachelor of Arts Degree (B.A.): Traditional Programs

The requirements of each major/minor/program are listed on other pages. All traditional students must complete the general studies requirements described below to earn a bachelor's degree.

General Degree Requirements: Traditional Programs

1. The student must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0000 for all graded courses and for the courses in any major, minor, or program. Some majors/minors/programs require a higher grade point average.
2. Courses that are not considered to be college level (normally courses numbered below 100) will not be counted toward a degree.
3. If no credit hours have been added to the student's Concordia transcript for two or more calendar years, the student must apply (through the Office of Admission) for readmission and meet the requirements in effect at the time of readmission.
4. The student must provide the Registrar with an official transcript showing high school graduation (or an official copy of GED scores) sent directly from the high school (or testing center) to Concordia and official transcripts sent directly from any other regionally accredited colleges or universities attended by the student to Concordia.
5. An application for commencement/diploma must be filed with the Registrar in a timely manner.
6. The student must fulfill all financial obligations to the University.

General Studies Requirements for Traditional Students

The curriculum required of all B.A. students (except for the Accelerated Degree Program) is summarized in broad outline as follows:

Proficiency Requirements*	0-14 credits
Foreign Language I & II	6
Mathematics	2
Speech	3
Writing	3

*Student may complete proficiency requirements by exam or by course work. In some cases, proficiency can be established without earning college credit. See General Studies Proficiency Requirements (p. 38).

Any mathematics course must be more advanced than Intermediate Algebra and requires a grade of C- (1.6667) or better.

Notes:

1. Of the 128 hours required for graduation, at least 30 hours (including at least six credits in every major, minor, or program; two upper-level General Studies courses; two upper-level writing-intensive courses; and a senior project) must be completed in courses offered by Concordia University, Ann Arbor.
2. A student must complete a minimum of one approved major. Elementary Teacher Education students have the option of completing two approved minors.
3. The sponsoring divisions must certify the completion of approved majors and minors.
4. Professional program requirements must be met for students seeking certification in a designated program. The sponsoring program director must certify the successful completion of the program.
5. A student must pass at least two courses with the designation writing-intensive (w).
6. Senior Project: The Senior Project is the culminating activity required in the senior year for the completion of the bachelor's degree. It is carried out within the context of the student's major or program but draws on all the student has learned. The Senior Project may take a variety of forms: independent research and writing, performance, collaborative work with a faculty member, an internship, etc. The senior project may carry a variable number of credits, depending on departmental requirements. The Senior Project requires a minimum grade of C. See your advisor or the Registrar's Office for further information.

Associate in Arts Degree (A.A.)

Concordia University offers this degree only with a General Studies designation.

General Degree Requirements: Associate Degree

1. The student must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0000 for all graded courses
2. Courses that are not considered to be college level (normally courses numbered below 100) will not be counted toward a degree.
3. If no credits have been added to the student's Concordia transcript for two or more calendar years, the student must apply (through the Office of Admission) for readmission and meet the requirements in effect at the time of readmission.
4. The student must provide the Registrar with an official transcript showing high school graduation (or an official copy of GED scores) sent directly from the high school (or testing center) to Concordia and official transcripts sent directly from any other regionally accredited colleges or universities which the student attended to Concordia.
5. An application for commencement/diploma must be filed with the Registrar in a timely manner in order for the student's name to appear in the commencement program.
6. The student must fulfill all financial obligations to the University to be eligible for commencement honors, or to receive a diploma.

The core curriculum required of all A.A. students is described in broad outline as follows:

Proficiency Requirements*	0-14 credits
Foreign Language I & II	6

General Studies Curriculum Overview

Based on the University's mission of preparing men and women for a life of service in the church and in the world, the General Studies curriculum provides a set of experiences, knowledge, and skills necessary for a life of Christian service. The curriculum introduces the liberal arts through interdisciplinary study, with a focus on problem-solving. The student will confront ambiguity, complexity, and synthesize disciplinary insights into a comprehensive understanding of selected problems in the context of Christian faith and values.

Outcome Domains

Content Areas: Explore the interrelationships between disciplines, probe their assumptions, and understand their contexts and methods of analysis. The categories of Heritage, Institutions, and the Arts provide the content for problem identification. Problems are framed within the following contexts:

- Exploring the Christian Faith
- Functioning within Social Institutions

- Using the Arts
- Using Science and Technology

Process Areas: Develop critical thinking and problem solving through interdisciplinary perspectives where the focus is on the process of analyzing problems too large for study by one discipline. Coursework emphasizes:

- Communicating
- Solving Problems
- Clarifying Values

Senior Project: Integrative exercise that demonstrates the use of interdisciplinary skills to answer a question, interpret a phenomenon, or solve a problem.

Categories of Learning and Course Requirements

Introduction to Campus Computing

GST151 Introduction to Campus Computing

Freshman Seminar

1 credit

Description of Category

Freshman Seminar uses the principles of effective learning as identified by psychologists, to help students develop academically, as well as in their personal relationships with others. The seminar promotes academic success in the General Studies Core and presents models for understanding interdisciplinary study.

Course Requirement

GST182 Freshman Seminar: The Psychology of Relationships and Effective Learning

Categories of Arts, Heritage, and Institutions

15 credits

Arts

Description of Category

Core studies in the arts focus on understanding and encountering both verbal and non-verbal forms of communication within the human experience. Students will develop a variety of critical and analytical approaches to the literary, visual, and musical arts, enabling them to apprehend the possibilities for expression and the complex interplay between individual talent, artistic tradition, and historical context. The arts involve heightened and concentrated forms of human experience, worlds of unexpected insights, intuitions, and emotions. Because the arts provide mirrors that uniquely reflect and refract human experience, they broaden our notions about our view of the world.

Course Requirements

Lower level: Any AT5100-299 course

Upper Level: Any AT5300-499 course

Heritage

Description of Category

The present drives all of us to ask questions of the past, and the questions we ask of past events are the result of our own values and experiences. Conversely, the culture in which we live and which we know is the result of events, choices, and values extending from the past.

This core area concerns the relationship of humans to their past as a form of inquiry and understanding, including broad ranging explanations of major aspects of the modern world, global or near-global in their scope. In addition, students need a sharper focus on detailed controversial and transforming events, now removed in time that can be studied in detail without contemporary passions, though not without value framework and biases. The aim is developing an understanding of the intricacy of an event that through individual decisions helped shape a portion of the modern world. The content in this category need not concern only matters of politics and economics, the substance of traditional history, but may include material from the arts, science, literature, and religion.

Course Requirements

Lower level: Any HER100-299 course

Upper level: Any HER300-499 course

Institutions

Description of Category

Society is organized. We work, act, and worship within institutions and bureaucracies and groups. It is extremely important to a life of service that students understand how institutions, and the individuals within them, function. The focus of the core here is on the relationship of human to human and on the cooperative completion of tasks. Though this core area will borrow heavily from social science concepts and methods, it is not intended to provide a broad survey of all the social sciences. Instead, the intent of this core area is to show what we understand and how we can better understand the behavior of people and institutions. Since institutions operate within every part of society, courses in this area could select content from any aspect of human endeavor and analyze it from several viewpoints.

Course Requirements

Lower level: Any INS100-299 course

Upper level: Any INS300-499 course

Language

3 credits

Description of Category

The study of language is an encounter among people who name the world. Its use is an act of creation implicit in our history, reflected in our social and political institutions, and profoundly identified with our calling in the world. The focus here is on how humans develop and use symbols of all kinds to tell others about themselves and their needs. The methods involve the exploration of existing texts, both spoken and written, as well as the production of materials that communicate student viewpoints. Moreover, because symbolic expression moves beyond reading and writing, this core area should include visual, graphic, and aural dimensions of human experience.

Course Requirement

The requirement has the following options:

Spanish, French, German, Classical Greek or Biblical Hebrew at the intermediate level 3 credits

OR

LAN282 Language, Communication, and Culture

Nature

6 credits

Description of Category

Human culture exists within and depends upon the relationship between humans and the environment in which they live. This core area emphasizes the principles about the physical world that underlie it. It incorporates both predictive and deductive analysis of natural phenomena through quantitative treatment of their simple elements. It also includes a study of more complex systems that cannot be understood on the basis of their simple elements and require more descriptive and historical accounts. Virtually every aspect of human existence depends on an understanding of how nature works, how the physical world functions.

Vocation

Description of Category

Humans do not just exist in the universe. They expend a great part of their lives trying to produce effective results through their actions in the world. The emphasis in this core area is on what constitutes productive labor, the value we place upon it, the value we ought to place on it, and on the range and variety of human endeavor and production. In keeping with the mission of the University, vocation is viewed on the one hand, in its broadest context, as the practice of freedom always existing in reality containing mankind, never abstract, isolated, independent, and detached. On the other hand, it is necessary that we attempt to match our skills, interests, and abilities to specific opportunities to serve and labor. Thus materials may range from narrow questions of career development to the broadest possible philosophical questions of calling to action in the world. There is no specific course requirement in the Vocation Category, but the idea of Christian vocation is addressed in several General Studies courses.

Biblical Identity and Valuing

6 credits

Description of Category

The focus here is the nature of humans as individuals in the world, called into existence by God. The emphasis is on who each of us is, the influences that shaped us, the things that have been and ought to be important to us. Identity brings coherence to experience, and thus requires critical thinking – thinking which discerns an indivisible union between the world and human beings, and thinking which perceives reality as a process, as transformation, rather than as a static entity. Studies ought to look at various value systems and ways of identity-making and ask students to analyze them while confronting them. Students will wrestle with the problems of developing Christian humanism as a value stance in a world in which there are many, very different, definitions of value and identity. To meet the needs of students seeking a vocation in church work, there are two categories of course requirements:

General Studies Curriculum Proficiency Requirements

Foreign Language Proficiency

All regularly admitted freshmen must register for a foreign language (Spanish, French, German, or Greek). Entering freshmen whose high school transcripts indicate a minimum of two years of study of Spanish, French, or German with a “B” average or better are eligible to take the proficiency examination in that language.*

Students whose exam scores indicate full proficiency are exempted from the requirement for basic language study. Students whose exam scores indicate proficiency equivalent to 101 level (“half proficiency”) are exempted from the first semester 101 foreign language course, but are required to take the second semester 102 level course in the same foreign language.

*Proficiency may be demonstrated in other foreign languages for which standardized exams exist.

Writing Proficiency

Concordia University requires that students demonstrate proficiency in written English on both basic and upper levels. Students with an ACT (English section) score of 24 or higher are eligible to take the Writing Proficiency Exam during preregistration.

Students who are not eligible to take the Writing Proficiency Exam, or who do not pass the exam, will register for ENG101: English Composition. This writing proficiency may also be satisfied by passing an appropriate College Level Examination Program (CLEP) test or by credits awarded through the Advanced Placement (AP) Program.

The upper level writing proficiency requirement is met by successful completion of two upper level courses designated “W.” These are courses in various academic disciplines and include writing instruction and projects.

Oral Communication Proficiency

Concordia University–Ann Arbor (CUAA) requires that students in traditional degree programs demonstrate basic proficiency in speech communication. The proficiency may be demonstrated in either of two ways: (1) by successfully completing COM201 Speech Communication (3 credits), or (2) by passing the Oral Communication Proficiency Exam. The proficiency exam may be taken by students who score 24 or higher on the English section of the ACT and received an average grade of “B” or better in at least two semesters of high school speech communication courses.

Mathematics Proficiency

Each graduate of CUAA must demonstrate that he/she has acquired an acceptable level of knowledge in mathematics. A student may demonstrate that an acceptable level of knowledge in mathematics has been achieved in one of the following ways.

- a. The student must score 25 or higher on the mathematics portion of the ACT (or 600 or higher on the mathematics portion of the SAT) and receive a grade of B- or better in at least one year of high school math at the subject level of Algebra II (Advanced Algebra) or higher.
- b. The student must receive a grade of C- or better in a college level mathematics course (2 or more credit hours) at a subject level higher than college intermediate algebra. At CUAA, courses that can be used to obtain mathematics proficiency are those numbered MAT110 or higher.

Technology Proficiency

Concordia University requires that all students demonstrate proficiency in the critical use of information technology. Students demonstrate proficiency by successfully completing GST151 Introduction to Campus Computing or by passing the computer proficiency exam.

THE ETHEL M. HAAB SCHOOL OF BUSINESS & MANAGEMENT

The Ethel M. Haab School of Business and Management provides a solid foundation of professional business and management skills through a commitment to personalized education and leadership development within the context of Christian values. Men and women are prepared to be competent, ethical and service-oriented leaders with the ability to initiate, and contribute to, positive change in their organizations, church, and community. Internships, senior projects, and leadership courses are required components of the Haab School education.

The Haab School of Business and Management offers a collaborative environment for students by providing a quality business education while partnering with businesses and other colleges and universities to enrich the student’s educational experience. A collaborative initiative with Eastern Michigan University offers students the opportunity to select accounting and finance concentrations.

The learning experiences of the Haab School are integrated with the learning experiences of Concordia University–Ann Arbor’s (CUAA) core curriculum. The majors and minor provide each student with a broad exposure to the essential areas of business. This is combined with the development of such liberal arts skills as critical thinking, effective communication, and a general knowledge of our society’s cultural and historical roots. Upon completion, the business student is able to demonstrate competencies in his/her ability to:

1. Function effectively within business organizations
2. Communicate clearly in a variety of modes
3. Solve problems and implement solutions
4. Make ethical, business and managerial decisions
5. Access, manage and evaluate information
6. Exhibit leadership skills
7. Utilize appropriate business technology
8. Excel in professional business behavior

Scholarships are available to business students, both at the university level, through the Haab Scholars program, and other individual funds such as the Marsh Scholarship Fund.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Completion of at least 24 credits with a GPA of 2.0 or better
- Completion of MAT 111 with a C or better
- BUS 101, 111 completed at CUAA with C or better*

*transfer students may substitute an additional letter of reference and additional essay, with written permission from the dean of the Haab School, assuming 2.0 in each of two business courses taken from an accredited university.

Application Process for Admission: completion of application, written essay, two letters of recommendation (one from a business department professor) and an interview.

Maintaining Good Standing: an overall GPA of 2.0 must be maintained in each business course and in each semester.

Business Administration Core

Junior level standing must be attained before taking all 300 and 400 level business courses.

CONCENTRATIONS in specialized areas are available in Marketing, Management, and Accounting. Additional concentrations are also under development.

Accounting Concentration

The accounting concentration is designed to provide students with greater knowledge and skill in the accounting of businesses and organizations. An essential business function, accounting is the language of business. Concordia's accounting students will select a curriculum that enhances their understanding of the accounting function within an organization, and the ethical issues that go hand-in-hand with accounting.

In addition to completing the requirements for a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration, the student will take four additional accounting courses at Eastern Michigan University:

Accounting Concentration

ACC241	Principles of Managerial Accounting	3
ACC296	The Accounting Cycle and Profession	3
ACC340	Intermediate Accounting	3
ACC356	Accounting Information Systems	3
or
ACC344	Principles of Taxation3	3

Marketing Concentration

The marketing concentration is designed to provide students with greater knowledge and skill in the marketing of businesses and organizations. Concordia's marketing students will select a curriculum that enhances their understanding of important marketing elements that are critical to any organization.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Bachelor's Degree Programs

Concordia's School of Education (SOE) curriculum has been developed to be fully consistent and in compliance with all standards and requirements established by the Michigan State Department of Education, the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) and the professional organizations governing the content specialty areas of majors and minors. Successful completion of the curriculum qualifies candidates for the Bachelor of Arts Degree and teacher certification and, if desired, a Lutheran Teacher Diploma. The School of Education offers two programs, elementary teacher education and secondary teacher education. Each is described below.

School of Education Mission Statement

"Concordia's School of Education prepares entry-level elementary and secondary teachers for the church and community who are able to provide effective servant-leadership, prepared for reflective practice, and committed to life-long learning and strengthening of practice."

Conceptual Framework/Program Outcomes

The SOE has created and adopted a set of Program Outcomes, providing a description of the knowledge, skills and dispositions candidates are expected to demonstrate in order to receive the recommendation for a state teaching certificate. Each candidate's progress towards achieving these outcomes is assessed and documented throughout progression through his/her program and is the primary basis for determining admission and continuance in program, admission into the Directed Teaching experience, and program completion. The ten Program Outcomes are:

SL1. Caring Relationships: Concordia's graduates reflect a disposition of service as they nurture caring and supportive relationships with students, families, and colleagues.

SL2. Each Child: Concordia's graduates espouse each student as a unique child of God, full of potential.

RP3. Disciplinary Knowledge: Concordia's graduates know and understand the concepts, skills, and frameworks of the subjects appropriate to their certification.

RP4. Theory into Practice: Concordia's graduates help every student learn by using their understanding of learning, development, and human motivation to design instruction which is responsive to student diversity and individual differences.

RP5. Well-Aligned Instruction: Concordia's graduates can deliver well-differentiated and well-aligned instruction that empowers students as learners.

RP6. Communication and Collaboration: Concordia's graduates communicate effectively and foster collaboration which supports students and their learning.

RP7. Teaching Contexts: Concordia's graduates use their knowledge of the social, historical, economic, legal, and cultural foundations of education to assess and respond to the dynamics of their classroom, school, and community.

RP8. Appropriate Technologies: Concordia's graduates make appropriate use of appropriate technologies.

LL9. Learning Communities: Concordia's graduates pursue, interpret, and share professional knowledge and the wisdom gained from practice in order to improve their effectiveness and to strengthen the profession.

LL10. Strengthening Practice: Concordia's graduates continue growing in their knowledge, skills, and dispositions to enhance student learning.

Field and Clinical Experiences

Most SOE courses include required field and clinical experiences. These provide opportunity to develop skills and dispositions and to demonstrate progress towards the Program Outcomes. Assessments of candidates' success in each field-based experience will be completed by the course instructor or cooperating teacher. Selected assessment rubrics will become part of the candidate's application file for use in considering qualifications for admission into Program and into the Professional Semester.

All field-based requirements are expected to be completed before the end of the course within which it is assigned. Satisfactory course grades (letter grade C or higher) require satisfactory completion of both the hours and the activities assigned.

Post-Bachelors Waiver

Up to half of the field work in pre-admission courses (EDU220, EDU301 and EDU302) may be waived for Post-Bachelors Certification candidates who provide documentation and reflective summaries of previous work or volunteer experiences with children. Details on applying for the waiver are available from course instructors. Instructors will approve or deny requests in consultation with the SOE Dean.

Scheduling Field Based Experiences

Specific times for pre-admission field work hours are not included in the scheduled class times; candidates need to arrange one to two hours weekly for their completion. Required clinical hours are included in the class schedules of the Elementary Education courses and some of the Secondary Education methods courses. Candidates may be responsible for their own transportation to field sites. Sites and field activities will be selected and assigned through the course instructor.

Eligibility for Participation in Field Based Activities

Michigan's Board of Education's practice has been to deny, revoke or suspend a teaching certificate for misdemeanor or felony convictions involving criminal sexual conduct, convictions of child abuse, or distribution of a controlled substance to a minor. In response to the State's regulations regarding such infractions, the SOE has created the Rule 101.1 Statement which must be completed and submitted at the start of each semester involving field experiences. The Statement is also a part of the application process for admission to Program and the Professional Semester and when requesting a recommendation for certification.

If a candidate replies positively to any of Statement's questions regarding conviction or charges related to felonies or certain misdemeanors, involvement in field-based experiences will be postponed until the Dean determines, in consultation with the Michigan Department of Education, whether the conviction or charge is serious enough to indicate the strong possibility of eventual denial of a teaching certificate by the State. If it is determined that such a possibility exists, the candidate may be denied the opportunity to participate in field-based experiences and will be counseled to withdraw from the teacher education program.

It is the candidate's responsibility to immediately report to the SOE Dean any changes in previously submitted Rule 101.1 Statement responses.

Enrollment in School of Education Courses

Enrollment in the following teacher education courses is open to any CUAA student who has met course prerequisites:

EDU220 Foundations of Education: Learning and Schooling

EDU301 Adapting for Diversity

EDU302 Adapting for Exceptionalities

EDU345 Adapting to Adolescent Learners

EDU408 Teaching the Christian Faith

ECE 201 Foundations of Early Childhood Education

Enrollment in all other courses offered by the School of Education requires formal admission into one of the Teacher Education programs.

Minimum Grade in Professional Studies Courses

In order to be eligible for the Professional Semester and program completion, a final grade of C (2.0) or higher is required for all required professional studies courses.

Applying for Admission and Certification

The SOE Dean is responsible for making final decisions regarding admission and continuance in Program, admission into the Professional Semester, and recommendation for state certification at program completion. In making all such decisions, the following are required and considered:

- Written application by the candidate.
- Written recommendation and support of faculty members.
- Documented evidence of the candidate's understanding of, continued progress towards, and successful achievement of the Program Outcomes.
- Satisfactory completion of all required coursework and clinical experiences.
- Evidence that the candidate exhibits appropriate professional behaviors, ethics, dispositions and character.
- Specific criteria and processes for each step are described below. In addition to the things noted, the Dean may request additional evidence including, but not limited to:

- The Vice President of Student Services' support, provided in writing, of the candidate's application.
- A criminal background check.
- Additional recommendations or letters of reference.
- Written statements in which the candidate expresses his/her understanding of the program outcomes, professionalism or other relevant issues.

Admission into Program

The following are requirements for applying for admission into the Elementary or Secondary Education Program:

- A. Prerequisite Courses and Field Work: To submit an application to a Teacher Education program, applicants must have satisfactorily completed or currently be completing the following prerequisite courses and their related field work experiences with a minimum grade of C or 2.0.

Course	Field work hours
EDU220 Foundations of Education: Learning and Schooling	20
One of these:	10
PSY211 Child Psychology (Elementary)
PSY212 Adolescent Psychology (Secondary)
PSY214 Psychology of the School-aged Child (K-12 Programs Only)
EDU345 Adapting to Adolescent Learners (Secondary)	20
EDU301 Adapting for Diversity	20
EDU302 Adapting for Exceptionalities	20

- B. Basic Skills: Applicants must demonstrate basic competency in reading, mathematics, and writing by passing all three sections of the “Basic Skills Test” of the Michigan Tests for Teacher Certification (MTTC). (Preparation and registration materials are available at www.mttc.nesinc.com. Tutoring support is available through Concordia's Academic Resources Center.)
- C. Writing Sample: Applicants must complete an extemporaneous writing assignment, which is assessed by the Dean or a faculty member designated by the Dean. If the writing sample raises concerns about a candidate's writing ability, a plan for strengthening those skills must be prepared by the candidate and the Director of the Academic Resource Center and submitted for the Dean's approval. The candidate's eventual admission into the Professional Semester will be contingent upon successful completion of that plan.
- D. GPA: Applicants must hold a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or higher in order to submit an application.
- E. Degree Plan: Applicants must submit a semester by semester plan for meeting all graduation and certification requirements, prepared in consultation with an academic advisor.
- F. Faculty Recommendations: Two positive recommendations from faculty members are required for admission. One must be prepared by an instructor from one of the prerequisite education courses (listed above.) The other is to be prepared by a faculty member of the division offering the candidate's major (or, for elementary education candidates with two minors, from a division offering one of the minors.) Recommendation forms are available from the SOE office and should be given directly to selected faculty members by the applicant.
- G. Admission Interview: Interviews are conducted by the Elementary or Secondary Education Coordinator and a second SOE faculty member. They are scheduled by the Dean's administrative assistant following confirmation of all requirements.

H. Professional Organization Membership: The candidate must submit evidence of current membership within a professional organization (regional, state or national) appropriate to his/her area of planned certification/endorsement.

Following the interview, all application materials submitted by the applicant, the interviewers' recommendations, and all other items in the applicant's SOE file will be reviewed by the Dean for final approval of admission into Program. In each case, the applicant will either be admitted or denied admission. There is no conditional or provisional admission.

If denied admission, the Dean will inform the applicant in writing as to the reason. The applicant may appeal the decision in writing to the Vice President of Academic Affairs within two weeks from the time of notification. A Review Council, convened by the Vice President, will hear the appeal as quickly as possible and render a decision within two days of the hearing. The Council's decision may be further appealed in writing to the university's president, whose decision will be final.

Continuance in Teacher Education Program

In order to maintain admission to Program, a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or better must be maintained. If a candidate's cumulative GPA falls below 2.5, admission to Program will be immediately suspended and the candidate will be ineligible to continue in professional studies courses. Readmission may be granted by the Dean when the candidate achieves a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher.

The Professional Semester

During the semester prior to Directed Teaching, candidates must apply for admission to the Professional Semester.

Requirements for Admission

- A. Eligibility: To be eligible to submit an application for Directed Teaching, the candidate must have taken courses for at least one semester at Concordia; been admitted into an education program (elementary or secondary;) successfully completed (or be completing) all prerequisite courses and clinical experiences with a grade of C (2.0) or better in each; and hold a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or higher.
- B. Faculty Recommendations: Admission into the Professional Semester requires positive recommendations from three faculty members. Elementary candidates should seek recommendations from two instructors of elementary Curriculum & Instruction courses and one instructor teaching within the candidate's academic major or minors. Secondary candidates need recommendations from one instructor of a secondary education methods course and one instructor each from his/her academic major and minor. Recommendation forms are available from the SOE office and should be given directly to selected faculty members by the applicant.
- C. Other Application Materials: Candidates are asked to include in the portfolio of application materials a current resume and an indication of preferences for their Directed Teaching Placement, using the "Directed Teaching Preferences" form attached to the application.
- D. Writing Sample: Applicants must demonstrate an appropriate level of competence in writing ability by completing an extemporaneous writing assignment at the time of the Professional Semester interview. The writing sample will be assessed by the Dean or a faculty member designated by the Dean. If the submitted sample raises concerns, the Dean will consult with members of the English division and other faculty members to determine more accurately the applicant's ability level. If, in the judgment of both the Dean of the School of Education and the chair of the English department, the applicant is unable to demonstrate an appropriate level of writing skill, admission to the Professional Semester may be denied.

- E. Professional Organization Membership: The candidate must submit evidence of current membership within a professional organization (regional, state or national) appropriate to his/her area of planned certification/endorsement.
- F. Professional Semester Interview: Interviews are conducted by the SOE Dean and a faculty member of the candidate's major or minor. They are scheduled by the Dean's administrative assistant following confirmation of all requirements.

Following the interview, the Dean of the School of Education will review the candidate's application materials, faculty and interviewers' recommendations, and other materials contained in the candidate's SOE file before reaching a decision to approve or deny admission to the Professional Semester. A letter outlining your status will be sent to the candidate by the Dean. Copies will be placed in the candidate's SOE file and sent to his/her academic advisor. The University registrar also receives notification.

Selection/Assignment of Directed Teaching Sites and Mentors

The School of Education has detailed criteria for the identification of schools and the selection of cooperating teachers chosen for Directed Teaching. After interviewing each teacher candidate, the Program Coordinators will identify and assign Directed Teaching placements. Candidates working towards the Lutheran Teacher Diploma will be placed in The Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod schools as a part of the certification process for becoming a rostered teacher within the church. All others will generally be placed into public schools, unless other arrangements are requested.

Program Completion and State Certification

Requirements

- A. Passing Scores on the Michigan Tests for Teacher Certification: For program completion, Elementary Education candidates must achieve a passing score on the Elementary Education exam of the Michigan Test for Teacher Certification (MTTC). To add specialized endorsements to Michigan's elementary teacher's certificate, passing scores must also be achieved on the MTTC content area tests for the academic major and/or minors.

Secondary candidates must achieve passing scores on the MTTC content area tests in both their academic major and minor areas.

SOE policy states that passing scores on certification-area MTTC tests are required for program completion, whether or not a candidate plans to request a Michigan certificate. It is therefore not possible to earn a BA Degree in Teacher Education from Concordia without passing MTTC scores.

- B. Documentation of Achievement of Program Outcomes: At the completion of Directed Teaching, each candidate's cooperating teacher(s) and university supervisor(s) will prepare final written evaluations. This "Tier 3" assessment specifically notes success in demonstrating the School of Education's ten Program Outcomes and provides the primary basis for determining the final grade for the Directed Teaching experience.
- C. Training in First Aid and CPR: As of July 1, 2004, the State of Michigan requires that all applicants for a Michigan Teaching Certificate provide evidence of training in first aid and CPR. When submitting to the Dean the request for a Michigan teaching certificate, a photocopy of a current certificate from Red Cross or American Heart Association must be submitted.
- D. Professional Conference Attendance: As evidence of achievement of Program Outcomes LL9 and LL10, candidates must provide the SOE Dean with evidence of participation in at least one professional conference (regional, state or national) appropriate to their certification.

Deadline for program completion

All requirements for program completion must be completed within two years (24 months) of withdrawal from the university. Following that deadline, a candidate desiring to return and complete certification requirements will be required to meet any new or changed program requirements.

Procedure for securing a state teaching certificate

Once all program requirements are completed, the candidate may submit a Request for Initial Teacher Certification to the SOE Dean, who serves as the university's certification officer. When program completion and fulfillment of all requirements have been verified, the certification officer will submit the university's recommendation to the State Department of Education electronically. At the same time, the candidate will be provided a letter noting that the recommendation has been submitted. As per Michigan regulations, this letter serves as a 90-day teaching certificate while the recommendation is processed by the Department of Education.

Rule 101.1 Exception: In keeping with Michigan's Rule 101.1 regulations, if a candidate reports conviction for certain misdemeanors or felonies (specified in Michigan's Public Act 97 of the Public Acts of 1995,) details must be noted in the submitted recommendation for certification. In such cases, a 90-day certificate letter may not be provided to the candidate by the certification officer. Receipt of certification will be put on hold, pending the State Department's investigation of the case and final decision regarding certification. Failure to accurately or honestly report convictions or current charges while requesting a teaching certificate may serve as the basis for a denial of certification.

Deadline for requesting certification

The State of Michigan stipulates a five-year window for submitting a program completer's recommendation for certification. Following that deadline, Concordia requires evidence of a minimum of ten additional credits of coursework directly related to the requested area(s) of certification. Ten or more years after program completion, a minimum of eighteen additional credits and evidence of 50 hours of appropriate clinical experiences are required.

Becoming certified in other states

Certification processes and requirements differ slightly from state to state. Concordia strongly encourages all graduates to begin by securing a Michigan certificate, even if they do not intend to find a teaching job within the state. A description of requirements in all 50 states is available at www.uky.edu/Education/TEP/usacert.html.

Bachelors Degree in Elementary Education

Completion of the elementary teacher education program (with a passing grade on the "Elementary Education" test of the Michigan Test for Teacher Certification (MTTC)) leads to certification by the State of Michigan to teach all subjects in grades kindergarten to 5 and all subjects in grades 6 to 8 in self-contained classrooms. Passing the appropriate MTTC content area test also qualifies you to teach in a departmentalized program (grades 6 to 8) in the area(s) of your specialization (major or minors.)

The elementary education program consists of three components - General Studies, Professional Education Studies and Specialty Studies (a major or two minors.) Completion of a fourth component, the Lutheran Teacher Diploma requirements, certifies the candidate to serve in the teaching ministry of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod. The following chart outlines these components.

Elementary Education Components	Credits
*General Studies
Proficiency Requirements (Students may exempt themselves from some or all of the proficiency requirements through testing.)	14

(A minimum of 128 credit hours are required for a B.A. degree. If total credits fall short, use electives to reach the minimum.)

Professional Studies in Education Courses - Elementary Education

The elementary education professional studies component includes 23 credits of professional education core courses (indicated by an asterisk in the following table) and 21 credits of specialized courses in elementary curriculum and instruction. All courses include prescribed field-based observation and/or clinical practice experiences.

Although individual degree plans may vary, the following table illustrates both the prescribed sequence of professional education courses for an undergraduate candidate and a compressed sequence for Post-Bachelors degree candidates.

Specialty Studies in Elementary Education

Elementary education candidates must complete either a major or two minors in addition to the full sequence of elementary education courses. Individuals who, in the two minor option, select Psychology, Spanish or Speech, must choose a second minor from content areas typically taught in elementary classrooms such as English, General Science, Mathematics, Music Education, Physical Education or Social Studies. Concordia's approved majors and minors for teacher candidates in elementary education include:

Specialty Area	State code	Major (credits)	Minor (credits)
Art Education K-12	LQ	Proposed	No

Students seeking to be admitted to the School of Education in this program entering the program after September 1, 2006 should consult with an advisor for more information. Only the K-12 music education endorsement will be offered after the 2006-07 academic year.

++Spanish, Speech or Psychology minor must be combined w/one of the following minors: English, Mathematics, Integrated Science, Social Studies

Bachelors Degree in Secondary Education

Completion of the secondary teacher education program (with passing grades on the appropriate Michigan Test for Teacher Certification (MTTC) content area tests) leads to certification by the State of Michigan to teach grades seven through twelve in the areas of specialized studies.

The secondary education program consists of four components - General Studies, Professional Education Studies, Specialty Studies (either a major and a minor or a double major) and, if the degree plan allows, electives. Completion of a fifth component, the Lutheran Teacher Diploma requirements, certifies the candidate to serve in the teaching ministry of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. The following chart outlines these components.

Secondary Education Components	Credits

Subject Area Specialty Studies - Secondary Education

(Note: Due to the State of Michigan's implementation of the federal "No Child Left Behind" laws, secondary education majors and minors are currently under review and may be changed before this catalog is published. Candidates should refer to the revised Teacher Education Handbook for more up-to-date information.)

Secondary education candidates must complete both a major and a minor (or, if preferred, a double major) and the teaching methods course for each. All majors and minors are described in a separate section of this handbook. Concordia's approved majors for teacher candidates in secondary education include:

Specialty area	State code	Major (credits)	Minor (credits)

Lutheran Teacher Diploma (LTD)

The LTD program is designed to prepare confirmed members of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod to serve as rostered members of the teaching ministry in the schools and congregations of the church. Designed for both elementary and secondary teacher education programs, it requires thirteen credits in addition to the graduation requirements for the elementary and secondary teacher education programs. The courses might also be taken as electives by any student. The program includes the following courses:

BIV131 Introduction to Christian Religion (included in the General Studies Core)	3

Post-Baccalaureate Teacher Certification

Concordia offers a post-baccalaureate teacher certification program which is designed to enable individuals who have already earned a bachelor's degree to complete requirements for teacher certification in approximately four semesters. The Professional Studies and Specialty Studies in Education requirements are identical to those in the undergraduate teacher education programs. A minimum of 6 credits in the field(s) of specialization must be taken in residence.

SCHOOL OF ARTS & SCIENCES

Pre-Engineering: Liberal Arts

By means of a formal agreement with Kettering University, Flint, MI, Concordia University offers a two-year, pre-engineering program which provides students the opportunity to transfer to Kettering after two years. By successfully completing an individually prescribed academic plan while at Concordia, the student meets the academic requirements of Kettering with no loss of credits. In order to complete their pre-engineering studies in two years, students must prepare themselves well during high school by taking a year of chemistry, a year of physics, and mathematics through pre-calculus. The specific courses included in a pre-engineering student's academic plan will vary with the intended engineering field. However, academic plans typically include the courses below. Please consult with the pre-engineering advisor.

Pre-Law Studies

Pre-law students at Concordia University should complete the Bachelor of Arts degree.

The Pre-Law Committee of the American Bar Association Section of Legal Education (see <http://www.abanet.org/legaled/prelaw/prep.html>) “does not recommend any particular group of undergraduate majors, or courses, that should be taken by those wishing to prepare for legal education; developing such a list is neither possible nor desirable.” In general, law schools look for broad preparation in the liberal arts and high levels of performance in challenging courses. They do not expect or desire to see a long list of law courses on undergraduate transcripts because each law course an undergraduate takes costs a substantive course they could take, and they assume that legal education is what they do best. However, the ABA does recommend a rigorous course of study emphasizing these skills and values:

1. Analysis and Problem Solving
2. Critical Reading Abilities
3. Writing
4. Oral Communication and Listening
5. General Research
6. Task Organization and Management
7. Serving Others and Promoting Justice
8. Knowledge, including
 - a. A broad understanding of history, particularly American history, and the various factors (social, political, economic, and cultural) that have influenced the development of the pluralistic society that presently exists in the United States;

- b. A fundamental understanding of political thought and theory, and of the contemporary American political system
- c. A basic understanding of ethical theory and theories of justice
- d. A grounding in economics, particularly elementary micro-economic theory, and an understanding of the interaction between economic theory and public policy
- e. Some basic mathematical and financial skills, such as an understanding of basic pre-calculus mathematics and an ability to analyze financial data
- f. A basic understanding of human behavior and social interaction
- g. An understanding of diverse cultures within and beyond the United States, of international institutions and issues, and of the increasing interdependence of the nations and communities within our world.

Recommendations

We recommend a broad social science major (we can arrange this as an individualized major) with the following components:

1. American history (HIS111 and HIS112), Racial and cultural minorities (HIS354), American Cultural and Intellectual Life (HER382)
2. Sociology (SOC101), Ethnographic Geography/Cultural Anthropology (SOC/GEO321)
3. Economics (ECO200)
4. General Psychology (PSY101)
5. American government (POS101), Comparative Politics (POS321), The Politics of Civil Liberties (POS361)
6. Additional social science electives to make at least 36 semester hours

Other Electives: College Algebra (MAT111), Elementary Statistics (MAT261), Accounting I (ACC201)

Other Major/Minor Combinations: English /Communications

Pre-Nursing: Liberal Arts

In response to a growing shortage of nurses throughout our nation, Concordia University is offering a health education and life sciences (HEALS) program, effective Fall 2006. The program includes pre-nursing courses designed to prepare students for degrees in nursing. This coursework consists of general education, basic sciences, and human sciences including pre-requisites courses in human anatomy and physiology, biology, microbiology, general chemistry, physics, psychology, sociology, human growth and development, elementary statistics and nutrition. Current planning envisions a nursing school on Concordia's campus, with students earning the Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) degree. An advisory panel of health professionals is working to develop all aspects of the future program, from selecting the curriculum to obtaining clinical sites. For further information, contact Concordia's pre-nursing advisor.

The Pre-Seminary Curriculum

The pre-seminary curriculum at Concordia University, Ann Arbor provides students with the knowledge, skills, and understandings which lay the foundation for entrance into graduate work to become a pastor or church worker. It is designed toward entrance into one of the seminaries of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. The program allows students maximum flexibility while maintaining the high standards of academic preparedness. The Pre-seminary Council requires that students take the following courses.

REL241	Biblical Literature I	3
REL242	Biblical Literature II	3

THY301 Doctrine 1	3
THY302 Doctrine 2	3
PHIXXX Any course in Philosophy	3
GRE201 Elementary Greek 1	4
GRE202 Elementary Greek 2	4
HEB201 Elementary Hebrew 1	3
HEB202 Elementary Hebrew 2	3
Plus six additional Hebrew and/or Greek language credits selected from the following:
GRE301 Greek Prose	3
GRE302 Greek Poetry	3
HEB301 Hebrew Prose	3
HEB302 Hebrew Poetry	3

The above amount to 35 credit hours specifically required by all pre-seminary students over four years. In addition there are the general studies requirements plus the student's choice of major. The remaining credits necessary for graduation are satisfied by free elective courses.

The seminaries value a broad liberal arts curriculum as the best collegiate preparation. Specifically, familiarity with the following areas is recommended: English Grammar, English Composition, Philosophy, History, Modern Language, Social Science, Natural Science, Psychology, Education, English Literature, Cultural Anthropology, Western Civilization, History and Culture of Non-Western Civilization, World Religions, History of Philosophy (history of ideas, thought), Philosophy of Religion, Introduction to Ethics.

Students may select any major they wish. The student may also choose a minor or elect to obtain the remaining credits from suggested electives or those of direct interest to the student.

Freshmen or sophomores can apply for preliminary entrance into the pre-seminary program by completing a simple form and submitting it to the pre-seminary program director for his signature. Juniors and seniors must complete a more extensive form available in the Pre-Seminary Handbook, which details further academic and professional requirements.

Extra-Curricular Programs

Concordia University recognizes that much of the preparation of students for future ministry occurs outside the classroom. In addition to the academic program outlined above, the pre-seminary student at Concordia has the opportunity to learn and grow through a wide variety of on-and off-campus activities. These experiences are designed to help students develop a Lutheran and pastoral ethos. Activities include lectures and seminars, contact and interaction with church leaders, as well as ministry and service experiences.

Reserve Officer Training Corp (ROTC) Programs

Concordia University has a special agreement with the University of Michigan, which allows students to participate in these partnerships. The classes are conducted on the campus of the University of Michigan.

Army ROTC

Students enrolled in the Army ROTC program, upon graduation from college and successful completion of the program; receive a commission as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army. Many students enroll for the first two years to sample career opportunities. Generally, no military obligation is incurred for the first two years of the program.

Army ROTC Courses

MS101	Introduction to Officership
MS102	Introduction to Leadership
MS201	Innovative Tactical Leadership
MS202	Leadership in Changing Environments
MS301	Leading Small Organizations I
MS302	Leading Small Organizations II
MS401	Advanced Leadership and Management
MS402	Military Professionalism and Professional Ethics

1. Course Overview: The Army ROTC Program is normally a four-year program of college-level courses divided into two phases:
 - a. Basic Course: Comprises the Freshmen (MS I) and Sophomore (MS II) level and is open to all students on campus as either participating students or auditing students.
 - b. Advanced Course: Comprises the Junior (MS III) and Senior (MS IV) cadets. The advanced course is open only to cadets meeting the Army standards for contracting. Progression into the advanced course may be from the Basic Course, ROTC Camp Challenge, or having completed Basic Training or AIT training in the Regular Army or Reserve components. Each cadet entering the Advanced Course must have permission from the Professor of Military Science.
 - c. Three and two-year programs: Students who have already completed one or two years of college may join the program. The three year plan required students concurrently take the Freshmen (MSI) and Sophomore (MSII) level courses followed by the two years of advance course classes. The two-year plan requires students to complete a 30 day leadership training course (LTC) after their sophomore year, in order to gain ROTC equivalent credit for the basic course, followed by the two years of advance course classes.
2. Course Requirements: Students are required to register for one discussion course each semester. Each course includes a weekly 90-minute Military Science lab that meets Thursday afternoons 4:00-5:30 p.m. Students will receive academic credit for ROTC classes. In addition to class and lab, basic course participating students attend one (MS I), or two (MS II), 1 hour physical training (PT) sessions each week. Advanced course students attend three 1 hour PT sessions each week.

Air Force ROTC

The program offers studies designed to prepare and commission selected individuals to serve in the United States Air Force and classes are offered at the University of Michigan. Both a four-year and two-year program leading to commission as a Second Lieutenant are offered. The four-year plan comprises eight terms of courses in aerospace studies and a four-week field-training course at an Air Force base, between the sophomore and junior years. The two-year plan comprises an initial six-week field-training course followed by four terms of aerospace studies (AS310 through AS411 series). Cadets may enroll in either the four-year or two-year program by permission of the chairman.

Air Force ROTC Course Overview:

AS 100	Introduction, Dress and Appearance, Customs and Courtesies
AS 200	Air and Space Power History and Capabilities
AS 300	Leadership, Management and Ethics
AS 400	National Security Process, Air Force Doctrine, Joint Service Operations and Preparation for Active Duty

Music

Throughout the ages, in every culture, music has played an important role in giving shape to, and being shaped by, relationships among human beings. Worship, social activities, and other arts depend on music to elevate and complete the experience. Concordia's music courses and ensembles reflect the belief that everyone can and should be a musician at some level. Each student has the opportunity to explore the power of music and develop his or her own musical skills, interests, and knowledge.

Music Education (JQ)

The music education program at Concordia University—Ann Arbor is transitioning to a new program to meet the new Michigan K-12 Music Education Standards (JQ). Students seeking to be admitted to the School of Education in this program entering the program after September 1, 2006 should consult with an advisor for more information. Only the K-12 music education endorsement will be offered after the 2006-07 academic year.

Theatre

Theatre is an art form which explores the human experience in the most direct manner possible. Ideas, issues, and events are enacted in a live performance so that actor, technician, and audience member alike must confront the artists' vision. Theatre's collaborative nature develops the leadership, organization and communication skills useful for a life of service.

DIVISION OF LANGUAGE & LITERATURE

Communication Studies

At Concordia—Ann Arbor, students of Communication Studies

1. develop effective & ethical communication skills in a variety of social contexts: at work, at home, in the church, and in society.
2. explore the nature of verbal, nonverbal, oral, print and mediated communication.
3. investigate the history and influences of various forms of communication.
4. understand the effects that communication has on individuals, families, marriages, organizations, and cultures.

In addition to three minors in Speech Communication (see below), Concordia offers students a journalism minor and a choice among three liberal arts majors or “tracks”:

Track I: Communication (traditional liberal arts)

Track II: Parish Communication & Leadership (church work vocations)

Track III: Professional Communication (business and professional vocations)

Track 1: Communication Major – Liberal Arts

31 credits

A liberal arts degree in Communication Studies helps students investigate the social and historical impact of various media, develop ethical and effective communication skills at work, at home, in the church, and in society, and explore theories, principles and models of public speaking, small group communication and leadership, interpersonal communication, business communication, mass communication, and oral performance. Students apply what they learn to communication practices, both oral and written, speaking and listening, and in doing so, they become more effective communicators.

Track II: Parish Communication & Leadership

36 credits

The major in Parish Communication & Leadership is an interdisciplinary program that prepares students to lead and manage churches and related institutions. Students study principles and theories of human language and interaction, while developing skills in interpersonal, rhetorical and managerial communication. The program emphasizes Christian commitment to servant leadership in modern church organizations, their various administrative groups and missions.

Journalism Minor 24 credits

The Journalism Minor emphasizes communication in the print media. Students learn to integrate sound ethics and principles of American Journalism with the Christian faith, while developing essential reporting, writing and editing skills. Concordia's Journalism students choose a curriculum that suits their career needs and interests by completing part of their study with courses in other departments. The minor requires an internship on campus, at the World Journalism Institute, or at an approved publications office.

English

Courses in English include the study of writing, language, and literature. Writing courses are designed to teach the strategies for producing clear, effective, and expressive written communication. Study of the English language is designed to teach language principles and history in order to foster informed attitudes toward varieties of language and language change. Courses in literature are designed to teach methods of literary interpretation through study of representative works.

In addition to the coursework described above, all students enrolled in English Education majors or minors must show proof of membership in at least one professional organization (e.g. National Council of Teachers of English, Michigan Council of Teachers of English, Michigan Reading Association, etc.) The department chair will keep a list of eligible organizations. Students are strongly encouraged to attend one or more professional conferences during their junior/senior year. The department will facilitate this activity.

Language Arts

Language Arts is a critical area of study for a teacher candidate in Elementary or Early Childhood Education. Reading, writing, listening, speaking, viewing and visual representation form the backbone of the elementary curriculum. Without it, we could not read and write in the content areas, solve problems in mathematics, or communicate with others.

Course Requirements

Language Arts is considered a group major/group/minor in the Elementary Education program.

DIVISION OF NATURAL SCIENCE & MATHEMATICS

Biology

Course offerings in biology provide the student with a comprehensive experience in the world of living organisms. Students explore the biological continuum from sub-cellular bio-molecular processes through the biology of organisms to populations and their environmental interactions. This study of life provides the knowledge and experience for many careers and vocations.

Chemistry

Chemistry is the study of the nature of matter-its composition, structure and behavior. The understanding of chemical principles, concepts, and techniques included in this discipline plays a central role in a university level science education. Students who complete this minor will acquire specialized knowledge, skills and attitudes for a variety of diverse vocations such as laboratory technical positions, biology and general/physical science education, medicine, and academic research.

Health Education and Life Sciences (HEALS)

The mission of Concordia University is to “prepare men and women for lives of service to the church and world.” With the growing needs of an aging population and a heightened awareness of various health issues, our nation and the world will look to tomorrow’s graduates for servant leadership and service. In our recently adopted HEALS program, students will be trained within our mission and prepared to serve the physical, mental, emotional, social and spiritual needs of patients.

Professional Health Careers

Pre-Medical/Dental School Major

The faculty from the Division of Natural Sciences and Mathematics of Concordia University has summarized the prerequisites of the (1) four medical schools – University of Michigan-Ann Arbor, Wayne State University-Detroit, and the two schools at Michigan State University-East Lansing and (2) two dental schools - University of Michigan, and the University of Detroit Mercy Dental College, in the state of Michigan. Professional schools of medicine/dentistry in most cases require a baccalaureate degree from an accredited four year college like Concordia. Some will allow transfer after 90 semester hours or three years. Students are strongly urged to contact their medical/dental schools of choice for the exact course prerequisites.

This program is to be followed by professional healthcare students wishing to apply to Medical School, Dental School, or Colleges of Pediatric Medicine, Osteopathic Medicine, Chiropractic Medicine, etc.

The following courses serve as the required and expected coursework for both the Medical College Admission Test (MCAT) or Dental Admission Test (DAT) and Medical or Dental School admission. Various factors (e.g. evidence of commitment to the profession, volunteer services) are included in the admission process; Concordia offers no guarantee that the mere completion of the following coursework will result in admission to these schools.

Certain coursework offerings are identified as Even (E) – offered during even academic years (e.g. 2006-07, 2008-09) or Odd (O) – during odd academic years (e.g. 2005-06, 2007-08)

Minors

Various minors are appropriate for the pre-med/dent student (e.g. Psychology, Sociology); any minor of interest to the student is possible and encouraged (e.g. Music, English, Theatre), or additional coursework in the sciences and general electives is possible. Individual professional schools have expectations of a well-rounded undergraduate education. Students are advised to contact individual professional schools to determine these courses (e.g. English, Psychology, etc).

Information Systems Management

Information Systems Management provides the technical training needed to be part of the computer systems world, with an emphasis on managing electronic information systems. This focus makes it different from a purely technical certification sequence. The curriculum in Information Systems Management is designed to prepare students in a variety of network management fields, and give students a sound foundation for a career in network administration. Students are expected to participate in a variety of network management operations on the CUAU network in addition to class and laboratory work. Graduates will therefore have hands-on experience combined with classroom training.

Kinesiology

The recognition of the importance of physical activity in the lives of all people underlies the curriculum of the Division of Kinesiology. Every student is encouraged to receive instruction and practice in a variety of lifetime sports and recreational activities. The Kinesiology curriculum is designed with an emphasis in the appreciation and study of human movement, with the goal to educate students for careers in teaching and coaching, athletics administration, recreation, and allied health and wellness programs.

Science

Science is a dynamic process which strives to reach the “best” answer to questions concerned with the world around us; that is, science is a way of knowing. In the sciences we explore the created handiworks of God and our human relationships to them. The following programs provide opportunities for broad experiences, specifically incorporating biology, chemistry, physics, and earth science.

DIVISION OF RELIGION & PHILOSOPHY

Biblical Languages

The courses in Greek and Hebrew provide the student with an acquaintance of the life and thought of two ancient civilizations whose ties in language, life, and thought are many. The offerings in Greek are intended to prepare the student for deeper study and understanding of the early Christian world and the New Testament. The courses in Hebrew are designed to provide a foundation for the study of the Old Testament. They also are intended to serve as an introduction to a Semitic language, literature, and culture. These objectives are best accomplished through a careful study of literature and philosophy in the original language.

Philosophy

The philosophy curriculum at Concordia is based on the mission statement of the University. Philosophy is one of the fundamental disciplines in academia. It is that discipline which studies the most basic issues, and which also ties together the other disciplines. It is good for sharpening thinking skills, and for giving students an understanding of the ideas that move society. The American Philosophical Association guidelines for philosophy majors emphasize that there are four different models for the teaching of philosophy: The historical model, the field model, the problems model, and the activity model, all of which we utilized in the Concordia philosophy minor.

Religious Studies

Concordia University offers an inter-disciplinary major and minor in the fields of religion and philosophy. These courses of study take into account the significant role that religion and philosophy have played in shaping the life and thought of people in both the Eastern and Western world. They offer students the opportunity to examine many of the religious and philosophical ideas that have motivated great movements and controversies which shape the spiritual and intellectual framework of the modern world.

DIVISION OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

Criminal Justice

The Criminal Justice Major prepares men and women for a life of values-based leadership and service in the various segments of the criminal justice field. It emphasizes knowledge of the concepts, procedures and skills related to criminal behavior; competency in analysis and communication; and connection to Christian and ethical values.

Family Life

The intent of the major is to prepare men and women for a life of service in the church and in the world, within the specialized area of Family Life. The Family Life major is an applied field of study, with a conceptual inter-disciplinary foundation in psychology, sociology, law, economics, and theology. As the most basic social institution, strong, healthy families who are committed to Christ and a life of service represent one of the most positive influences, which will impact our world. The Family Life graduate will leave Concordia with the academic and practical training necessary to develop and implement programming to build and equip healthy families. The National Council on Family Relations has certified the Family Life major, and graduates are thus eligible to be Certified Family Life Educators and or the Certified Hospital Child Life Specialist.

Youth Ministry Concentration

The Youth Ministry Concentration is composed of five practical courses offered over five semesters and is especially designed for church work students in the Family Life or Pre-seminary programs, but is open to all students who are seeking to deepen their knowledge and skills in ministry to homes of adolescents within the church or community. The class work is also available through “Life Long Learning” and open to paid and volunteer youth workers in the church who want certification in Youth Ministry. Courses are offered in three hour blocks in the evening or weekends. May-term courses occur in a one-week, eight-hour-a-day format: students attend 45 hours of class during the week and do the reading and the written work following the class time.

History

History may be defined as the recorded expression of past human activity. It includes the record of the political, social, and economic aspects of a people, as well as their artistic products, intellectual activities, scientific progress, and religious beliefs. Courses in this area attempt to underline the broad scope of history in all activities of men and women.

Psychology

Psychology introduces the student to the methods and findings of the scientific study of human behavior and mental processes, plus the application of scientific principles in helping to solve personal and societal problems, all within the context of biblical principles and Christian faith. The major is intended to prepare the student for graduate study in psychology, counseling, theology, education, and related fields. It may be combined with the Pre-Seminary or Teacher Education program. Graduates may also seek immediate employment in fields such as the social services, business, government, law enforcement, and allied health.

Because of limited demand for psychology teachers, we do not recommend a psychology major for secondary education. Secondary education candidates who wish to elect the minor should combine it with a major with substantial demand in secondary schools: mathematics, sciences, English or social studies.

ADMISSION TO THE ACCELERATED DEGREE PROGRAM (ADP)

Admission to Concordia University is based upon a wide range of criteria designed to identify a student body with integrity, high academic standards and serious educational and personal goals. True to the University's commitment to individualized education, each application receives a confidential and in-depth reading.

Admission Criteria

When making the admission decision, the Director of Admission and/or Admissions Council considers a number of factors including special characteristics of the applicant's background. These may include: recommendations; test scores; personal statement and/or interview. In addition, recent grade trends and general contributions to the school, community and church may be considered.

General Requirements

To qualify for admission into the Accelerated Degree Program (ADP), the student must:

- Be at least 23 years old
- Have a minimum of three years full-time work experience

To apply for an adult baccalaureate program a prospective student must submit:

- A completed application form
- A one page written essay expressing personal and professional objectives
- An official high school transcript or official certification of high school equivalency or GED diploma
- Official copies of all college transcripts
- Transcribed evidence of the completion of at least one college level course in each of the following:
 - English
 - Algebra

Transfer of Credit

Students transferring credit for former coursework must have an official transcript sent directly to the ADP Admissions Office from the Registrar at each collegiate institution previously attended. Official transcripts are required for an accurate evaluation of transfer credits. Transcripts presented in person by the student are unofficial as are any evaluations based upon them.

For transfer credit, Concordia University will consider college-level credits originally earned at any regionally accredited institution of post-secondary education or through the military services (as recognized by the American Council on Education) regardless of the means by which the credits were earned at the originating institution. Credits accepted by Concordia's Registrar may be used toward university-wide requirements, and must be approved by the appropriate division/dean/council to fulfill program/major/minor requirements. No credits from courses with grades below C- (1.6667) will be accepted for transfer. Grades of "pass" or "satisfactory" or any similar term will be considered as C- or better unless the official transcript indicates a different policy at the originating institution. Grades for transfer credits are not recorded on the Concordia transcript but may influence grade point averages for some programs/majors/minors. After a student is enrolled at Concordia, courses taken at other regionally accredited institutions should be approved in advance and in writing through the Registrar's office.

Facsimile and Electronic Transmission of Documents

Faxed or electronically transmitted documents are not considered official documents. While these documents may be helpful in advising and counseling students, official documents from the sending school's registrar's office to Concordia must be received following facsimile and/or electronic transmission for Concordia to take official action.

General Education Transfer Credit

A transfer student who enrolls as a full-time baccalaureate student and has partially completed traditional general education requirements, shall complete the remaining core requirements with courses from Concordia's General Education Requirements. Exceptions can be granted only through Michigan Uniform Undergraduate Guest Applications or a Petition for Substitution with the appropriate signatures of approval (both forms are available at the Registrar's Office). An evaluation of transfer credit is done by the Registrar and may be appealed to the General Studies Division chair. Courses to complete general education requirements are selected when preparing a degree completion plan with an academic advisor.

Credits Earned During Military Service

Veterans may receive appropriate credit for education preparation and experience acquired while in the armed forces. A veteran with an honorable discharge from active duty can receive such credit in accordance with the recommendations of the American Council on Education. Veterans should contact the Registrar's Office for assistance and should submit a copy of their Dd214 and an official military transcript (AARTS-Army, SMARTNavy/Marines, Community College of the Air Force).

Attendance at Neighboring Universities & Colleges

Students who would like to supplement Concordia's curriculum offerings may consider attending other area schools such as the University of Michigan, Eastern Michigan University, Cleary University or Washtenaw Community College on a part-time basis while they are attending Concordia. Written approval from an academic advisor is required before enrolling in courses outside of Concordia University–Ann Arbor. Michigan Uniform Undergraduate Guest Applications for all Michigan colleges and universities are available. The student is responsible for tuition charges from another institution, and those credit hours are not considered part of the student's Concordia course load, unless a signed consortium agreement is executed through the Financial Aid Office.

Accelerated Degree Program: Degree Requirements

Revisions in degree requirements and academic regulations take effect on the first day of July following their adoption by the faculty and the Board of Regents. Students at Concordia University will normally follow the degree requirements and academic regulations in effect at the time of their admission; however, a student who changes a major, minor, or program may be required to follow the requirements in effect at the time of the change. Such a decision would be based on the availability of required courses and may be appealed to the appropriate division or dean. Revised requirements by government agencies or certification associations may influence the student's degree requirements regardless of previously stated requirements.

Students are expected to read the regulations of the University and to conform to them. The student, not the University or any member of the faculty or staff, is responsible for meeting the requirements for a degree. Petition forms for the substitution or waiver of a requirement are available from the Registrar and must be approved according to faculty policy.

Registration and payment of fees imply an agreement by the student to conform to regulations of the University. Failure to meet obligations to the University, financial or otherwise, will be cause for refusal to issue a degree, transcript, and diploma.

Final responsibility for meeting all graduation requirements rests with the student.

Concordia University provides a variety of opportunities that serve the growing demand for adults to continue their education. The School of Adult and Continuing Education provides opportunities that range from single, non-credit experiences to baccalaureate degrees designed for working adults. The Accelerated Degree Program currently offers majors in Business Administration & Leadership, Criminal Justice Administration, Communication, and Public Safety Administration. The Accelerated Degree Program also offers two minors in Business Administration & Leadership and Communication. The requirements of each major/minor are listed in the section titled School of Adult and Continuing Education. In addition, students in the Accelerated Degree Program must complete the general education requirements described below.

General Degree Requirements: Accelerated Degree Program

1. The student must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0000 for all graded courses and for the courses in his/her major/minor.
2. Courses that are not considered to be college level (normally courses numbered below 100) will not be counted toward a degree.
3. If no credit hours have been added to the student's Concordia transcript for two or more calendar years, the student must apply (through the Office of Admission) for readmission and meet the requirements in effect at the time of readmission.
4. The student must provide the Registrar with official transcripts sent directly from all other regionally accredited colleges or universities where he/she attended. An official transcript showing high school graduation (or an official copy of GED scores) sent directly from the high school (or testing center) is required if the ADP student has earned less than 12 college credits.
5. An application for commencement/diploma must be filed with the Registrar in a timely manner to be eligible for a diploma.
6. The student must fulfill all financial obligations to the University to be eligible for a diploma and/or an official transcript.

General Education Requirements for the Accelerated Degree Program

The following table summarizes the distribution of requirements for the general education credits related to all Accelerated Degree Program students. All numbers represent semester hours of credit. Official Records & Release of Information

Official records are those records or files which directly relate to a student and are maintained by the university in accordance with policies and procedures stipulated in the Faculty Handbook. The official records of students are considered confidential information and, as such, shall be kept private from third parties. Every student in attendance, or who has been in attendance, has the right to inspect and review his/her official records. Concordia stipulates the following as official student records and names the corresponding position holders as responsible for their administration, retention and disposal:

Academic Advisement Files	Academic Advisors/Registrar
Academic Programs	Program Directors
Admission Files	Director of Admissions
Athletic Records	Director of Athletics
Business and Accounting Records	Business Office Manager
Church Worker Placement Files	Program Directors
Disciplinary Files	VP of Student Services
Financial Aid Files	Director of Financial Aid
Health Records	VP of Student Services
Standardized Test Results/Transcripts	Registrar

Provisions can be made for the periodic routine destruction of non-permanent records and non-current disciplinary records. Each office listed above is responsible for publishing a statement detailing the following: (1) the length of time a record is maintained, (2) the kind of material(s) which will be kept in the record, (3) individuals and/or offices which will have access to the records and, (4) policy for disposal of documents.

Exceptions

1. Unsuccessful applicants for admission to Concordia are not eligible for the considerations noted above.
2. Parents of Concordia students are considered third parties. The student must sign a waiver authorizing the appropriate office to release information to parents or others.
3. An instructor's own records, when kept in the sole possession of the maker and not accessible or revealed to any other individual except a substitute instructor, are not considered official records of Concordia.
4. Records which simply reflect the student as an employee of the institution are exempted from the definition of official records.
5. Records created or maintained by a physician, nurse, psychiatrist, psychologist or other recognized professional, or paraprofessional acting in his/her official capacity and used only for treating the student and not disclosed to any other individual except for those providing treatment, are exempted.

Right to Amend

A student who believes the information in an official record is inaccurate or misleading or violates the student's privacy may request that Concordia amend the record.

If a request for amendment is refused, the student may request a hearing to challenge the content of the record within twenty one days. The student must be given notice of the date and time. The hearing will be conducted by a member of the President's Cabinet who does not have a direct interest in the outcome. The student must have full opportunity to present evidence relative to the issues and has the option of being represented by an individual, including an attorney. If Concordia decides not to change the record, the student must be so informed in writing and given the opportunity to place in the record a statement commenting upon the information in the official record. This statement must be maintained with the record as long as the record is maintained.

Release of Information with Student Consent

Concordia may not disclose information from a student's official record without first obtaining the written consent of the student, except under certain limited circumstances noted below. Any consent for disclosure must be signed and dated by the student and must specify the records to be disclosed, the purpose(s) of the disclosure and the party or class of parties to whom the disclosure may be made.

Concordia may disclose without prior consent personally identifiable information regarding a present or former student if it is "Directory Information" from the three following categories:

Category I: Name, addresses (including permanent, local, and e-mail), current class schedule, telephone numbers, dates of attendance, class level (e.g. sophomore, graduate student), photographs, birth date, place of birth

Category II: Previous institution(s) attended, major field of study, awards, honors (includes Dean's list), degree(s) conferred (including dates), full time/part time status, number of credits carrying in current semester

Category III: Past and present participation in officially recorded athletic and co-curricular activities, physical factors (i.e. height and weight of athletes)

Although such information may be released without student consent, students may request information contained in any or all of the above categories not be released to any and all parties, except as stipulated below. Such a request will be made in writing to the registrar's office.

- A student's consent is not required if a record is to be disclosed to other administrators, faculty or staff within the University who have a legitimate educational interest in the information.
- Information may be disclosed to determine the eligibility for student aid, the amount of it, the conditions which will be imposed regarding it, and to enforce such terms or conditions.
- Information about a student can be released without consent to organizations conducting studies for, or on behalf of, the University to develop, validate, or administer predictive tests, administer student aid programs or improve instruction or retention.
- Accrediting organizations may be given information about students in order to carry out their functions.
- Concordia may release a record without student consent to comply with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena.

The University may disclose education records in certain circumstances:

- To appropriate parties in a health or safety emergency
- To the official of another school, upon request, to which a student intends to enroll
- To Officials of the U.S. Dept. of Education, the Comptroller General, to state and local educational authorities, in connection with state or federally supported education programs
- To appropriate parties the results of an institutional disciplinary proceeding against the alleged of a crime of violence
- To military recruiters per the Solomon Amendment

Additional exceptions stipulated by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, will be honored.

Record of Disclosure

Concordia must maintain a record of disclosure of official records to third parties. This record must be kept as long as the file is maintained. This record of disclosures is for inspection by the student.

Social Security Privacy

Concordia University protects the student's right of privacy of information and recognizes the importance of maintaining the confidentiality of student records while performing effective functions of the University. In this effort, CUAA assigns each student a unique Student ID to be used in place of the Social Security Number (SSN).

Social Security Numbers are collected from all students and are required for financial aid and specific reporting functions as required by the State and Federal government. Social Security Numbers may be used for mailing of transcripts if the student makes the request, reporting to the National Student Clearinghouse, attendance verifications, degree reporting, and loan tracking.

The Student ID number is used whenever the student registers for classes, makes a payment, or other internal functions. The Student ID will print on any internal hard copy material such as grade lists, attendance rosters, bills, etc. Copies of materials with a student's ID or SSN are destroyed by shredding when not retained in a secure area. Any original hard copy material, such as applications, with the SSN listed, is treated as confidential material and is destroyed by shredding after the student has not registered for five or more years.

Faculty and staff are notified annually of privacy procedures and FERPA requirements for any form of verbal or written communication.

ADMISSION TO GRADUATE PROGRAMS

Admission to Concordia University is based upon a wide range of criteria designed to identify a student body with integrity, high academic standards and serious educational and personal goals. True to the University's commitment to individualized education, each application receives a confidential and in-depth reading.

Admission Criteria

When making the admission decision, the Director of Admission and/or Admissions Council considers a number of factors including special characteristics of the applicant's background. These may include: recommendations; test scores; personal statement and/or interview. In addition, recent grade trends and general contributions to the school, community and church may be considered.

General Requirements

To qualify for admission into the Master of Science program, the student must have:

- A bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution
- A cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher on a 4.0 scale.
- Competence in computing and communication skills.

To apply for the graduate program a prospective student must submit:

- A completed application form for a specific program.
- Official transcripts from each college/university and seminary previously attended, unless such transcripts are already on file at Concordia University. In the latter case, the student should ask the Registrar to send official transcripts to the Graduate Admissions office.
- A one page written essay, expressing personal and professional objectives.
- Additional information as listed for a given program.

Educational Leadership - Admission Requirements

In addition to the above, applicants to the Educational Leadership program must submit the following:

- The Confidential Appraisal Forms from two supervisors, addressing the quality of the applicant's professional work and sent directly to Concordia University, School of Education – Graduate Admissions.

Organizational Leadership & Administration - Admission Requirements

In addition to the above, applicants to the Organizational Leadership and Administration program must submit the following:

- A professional resume (At least 3 years of full-time work experience is required)
- Transcribed evidence of the completion of at least one college level course in each of the following:*
- Economics (Macro or Micro)
- Statistics

*If these have not been completed, students are required to complete these as corequisites within the first semester.

Transfer of Credit

Students who fulfill the entrance requirements may transfer a maximum of 6 credits, earned within the past five years from another accredited institution. The Dean of the appropriate School will, in consultation with the Graduate Studies Committee, make those decisions.

Degree Requirements

Master of Science Degree in Educational Leadership

Concordia University's Master of Science in Educational Leadership is designed for professional educators who are seeking advanced professional training for positions in P-12 public and Christian schools. The nationally accredited School of Education at Concordia University provides a curriculum aligned with the Michigan Standards and in the three point mission of the School of Education to prepare professional educators who are servant leaders, reflective practitioners, and committed to life-long learning.

Educational Leadership Studies are foundational to the three concentrations that make up the graduate education curriculum. A core curriculum of 12 credit hours in foundational studies begins the program from which students may choose to specialize in one of three concentrations:

Educational Leadership and Administration

This program is designed for current and aspiring administrators who desire to build a theoretical understanding of effective leadership, and develop practical skills in educational administration. In this program, practical and relevant leadership skills and concepts are applied to the contemporary educational setting.

Official Records & Release of Information

Official records are those records or files which directly relate to a student and are maintained by the college in accordance with policies and procedures stipulated in the Faculty Handbook. The official records of students are considered confidential information and, as such, shall be kept private from third parties. Every student in attendance, or who has been in attendance, has the right to inspect and review his/her official records. Concordia stipulates the following as official student records and names the corresponding position holders as responsible for their administration, retention and disposal:

Academic Advisement Files	Academic Advisors/Registrar
Academic Programs	Program Directors
Admission Files	Director of Admissions
Athletic Records	Director of Athletics
Business and Accounting Records	Business Office Manager
Church Worker Placement Files	Program Directors
Disciplinary Files	VP of Student Services
Financial Aid Files	Director of Financial Aid
Health Records	VP of Student Services
Standardized Test Results/Transcripts	Registrar

Provisions can be made for the periodic routine destruction of non-permanent records and non-current disciplinary records. Each office listed above is responsible for publishing a statement detailing the following: (1) the length of time a record is maintained, (2) the kind of material(s) which will be kept in the record, (3) individuals and/or offices which will have access to the records and, (4) policy for disposal of documents.

Exceptions

1. Unsuccessful applicants for admission to Concordia are not eligible for the considerations noted above.
2. Parents of Concordia students are considered third parties. The student must sign a waiver authorizing the appropriate office to release information to parents or others.
3. An instructor's own records, when kept in the sole possession of the maker and not accessible or revealed to any other individual except a substitute instructor, are not considered official records of Concordia.
4. Records which simply reflect the student as an employee of the institution are exempted from the definition of official records.
5. Records created or maintained by a physician, nurse, psychiatrist, psychologist or other recognized professional, or paraprofessional acting in his/her official capacity and used only for treating the student and not disclosed to any other individual except for those providing treatment, are exempted.

Right to Amend

A student who believes the information in an official record is inaccurate or misleading or violates the student's privacy may request that Concordia amend the record.

If a request for amendment is refused, the student may request a hearing to challenge the content of the record within twenty one days. The student must be given notice of the date and time. The hearing will be conducted by a member of the President's Cabinet who does not have a direct interest in the outcome. The student must have full opportunity to present evidence relative to the issues and has the option of being represented by an individual, including an attorney. If Concordia decides not to change the record, the student must be so informed in writing and given the opportunity to place in the record a statement commenting upon the information in the official record. This statement must be maintained with the record as long as the record is maintained.

Release of Information with Student Consent

Concordia may not disclose information from a student's official record without first obtaining the written consent of the student, except under certain limited circumstances noted below. Any consent for disclosure must be signed and dated by the student and must specify the records to be disclosed, the purpose(s) of the disclosure and the party or class of parties to whom the disclosure may be made.

Concordia may disclose without prior consent personally identifiable information regarding a present or former student if it is "Directory Information" from the three following categories:

Category I: Name, addresses (including permanent, local, and e-mail), current class schedule, telephone numbers, dates of attendance, class level (e.g. sophomore, graduate student), photographs, birth date, place of birth

Category II: Previous institution(s) attended, major field of study, awards, honors (includes Dean's list), degree(s) conferred (including dates), full time/part time status, number of credits carrying in current semester

Category III: Past and present participation in officially recorded athletic and co-curricular activities, physical factors (i.e. height and weight of athletes)

Although such information may be released without student consent, students may request information contained in any or all of the above categories not be released to any and all parties, except as stipulated below. Such a request will be made in writing to the registrar's office.

- A student's consent is not required if a record is to be disclosed to other administrators, faculty or staff within the University who have a legitimate educational interest in the information.
- Information may be disclosed to determine the eligibility for student aid, the amount of it, the conditions which will be imposed regarding it, and to enforce such terms or conditions.
- Information about a student can be released without consent to organizations conducting studies for, or on behalf of, the University to develop, validate, or administer predictive tests, administer student aid programs or improve instruction or retention.
- Accrediting organizations may be given information about students in order to carry out their functions.
- Concordia may release a record without student consent to comply with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena.

The University may disclose education records in certain circumstances:

- To appropriate parties in a health or safety emergency
- To the official of another school, upon request, to which a student intends to enroll
- To Officials of the U.S. Dept. of Education, the Comptroller General, to state and local educational authorities, in connection with state or federally supported education programs
- To appropriate parties the results of an institutional disciplinary proceeding against the alleged of a crime of violence
- To military recruiters per the Solomon Amendment

Additional exceptions stipulated by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, will be honored.

Record of Disclosure

Concordia must maintain a record of disclosure of official records to third parties. This record must be kept as long as the file is maintained. This record of disclosures is for inspection by the student.

Social Security Privacy

Concordia University protects the student's right of privacy of information and recognizes the importance of maintaining the confidentiality of student records while performing effective functions of the University. In this effort, CUAA assigns each student a unique Student ID to be used in place of the Social Security Number (SSN).

Social Security Numbers are collected from all students and are required for financial aid and specific reporting functions as required by the State and Federal government. Social Security Numbers may be used for mailing of transcripts if the student makes the request, reporting to the National Student Clearinghouse, attendance verifications, degree reporting, and loan tracking.

The Student ID number is used whenever the student registers for classes, makes a payment, or other internal functions. The Student ID will print on any internal hard copy material such as grade lists, attendance rosters, bills, etc. Copies of materials with a student's ID or SSN are destroyed by shredding when not retained in a secure area. Any original hard copy material, such as applications, with the SSN listed, is treated as confidential material and is destroyed by shredding after the student has not registered for five or more years.

ATS374 Vienna of 1900*credits: 4*

Fin-de-siecle Vienna is the culturally fertile era at the end of the 19th century and the beginning of the 20th century. The political and social situation of the late Habsburg monarchy serves as a backdrop to the cultural and intellectual achievements of a number of prominent personalities, all of them embarking on the project of modernity. Many of these diversely influential artists and thinkers like Sigmund Freud, Gustav Mahler, Arthur Schnitzler, Otto Wagner, Gustav Klimt, Arnold Schonberg, and Egon Schiele were in close contact. The course fosters an interdisciplinary approach including history, literature, music, fine arts, architecture, and psychology. (Study Abroad - Vienna)

ATS375 Baroque Vienna*credits: 4*

This course examines one of the most fascinating periods of European musical history, studying the intense interaction between music, the arts, and politics in the Baroque period. Involving the greatest propaganda campaign ever witnessed up to that time, the Counter-Reformation was initiated to win back the mostly Protestant population for the "Triumphant (Catholic) Church." Religious musical drama portrayed the delights of paradise. Equally splendid was the majesty displayed by the Imperial Court, whose state ceremonies, inevitably including music, symbolized the strength and unity of the empire. Students learn to appreciate the sensual impressions of the arts, music, theatre, architecture, and art on all the senses in view of their function for that time. (Study Abroad - Vienna)

ATS376 Culture & Society of 19th Century*credits: 4*

This course deals with the major phenomenons and developments of the 19th century Habsburg Monarchy, discussing not only political and social problems and changes, but also topics such as art, music, and literature. General European developments, e.g. the Industrial Revolution and upcoming ideas of nationalism and communism, provide the background. (Study Abroad - Vienna)

A systemic analysis of the enduring social structures of American society: family, religion, education, government and vocation.

INS367 British Politics - Thatcher/Blair Era*credits: 3*

A comparison of Prime Ministers Margaret Thatcher and Tony Blair offers a lens through which to study contemporary British politics. The two leaders emerged from different parties and are often considered to be ideological polar opposites. Both leaders rallied and then alienated their party bases and broke with traditional party doctrine in their attempt to bring fundamental change to the UK. Both leaders engaged in a controversial foreign policy that ultimately lead the UK into war. Both enjoyed long tenures in office. (Study Abroad - London)

INS368 Irish Literature and Politics*credits: 3*

This course examines the way in which modern Irish writers have responded to the pressures of anglicization and modernization, and discusses literary reactions to social, ethnic, religious and gender issues in modern Irish culture. The course will start by examining the founding texts in Anglo-Irish literature (Swift and Edgeworth), establishing some of the most contentious debates in Irish studies as the parameters in which we will work. The emergence of an Irish Gothic tradition will also be looked at before moving towards an examination of the politics and literature of the Irish Literary Revival (1880-1920). Joyce and Beckett both reacted in their different ways to that Revival, and the course will close by examining two of their seminal texts in relation to that reaction. (Study Abroad - Dublin)

An introduction to the structure & function of desktop computers, PC file servers, & peripheral equipment with emphasis on installation, troubleshooting, & maintenance. Includes hands-on laboratory work. PREREQUISITES: PHY212

ISM351 Systems and Help Desk Management*credits: 3*

Students learn to apply skills & knowledge acquired in prior courses of desktop computers and network operating systems, and application software to support computer users in a networked computer environment. PREREQUISITES: CSC241 and MAT261 and COM202

ISM421 Network Administration*credits: 3*

An introduction to the architecture, installation, operation, and maintenance of local and wide area computer networks. PREREQUISITES: CSC352 and ISM341 and ISM351

ISM425 Web Site Design & Administration*credits: 3*

Students will acquire facility with a broad range of skills and technologies used to create and manage a complex web site. PREREQUISITES: ART220 and CSC352 and ISM421

ISM483 Senior Project*credits: 1*

Students combine research and practical implementation of theories and concepts to develop an individual project.

ITA111 Elementary Italian*credits: 5*

Beginning level. The curriculum focuses on practical language skills and conversation in order to facilitate a quick transition to life in Macerata and to gain better access into the Italian culture. (Study Abroad - Macerata)

ITA211 Intermediate Italian*credits: 5*

Intermediate level. The curriculum focuses on practical language skills and conversation in order to facilitate a quick transition to life in Macerata and to gain better access into the Italian culture. (Study Abroad - Macerata)

KIN201 Introduction to Physical Education*credits: 3*

Students explore the history, principles, scientific foundations, philosophy, and scope of Physical Education.

KIN230 Physical Activities*credits: 1*

The focus of this group of activities is the development of fitness habits for the individual. Activities include: jogging, aerobic exercises, swimming, weight training, and physical conditioning.

KIN233 Sports Health*credits: 3*

This course is designed to give knowledge and skills in the treatment of common activity-related injuries. Basis principles of first aid and athletic training are learned.

KIN235 Motor Learning & Development*credits: 3*

This course is designed to give knowledge about motor learning and development. Students experience how movements are learned and how the capacity for movement changes over the life-span.

KIN240 Team Activities*credits: 1*

This group focuses on some popular team sports, as well as some that are not well known. Activities include: volleyball, Concordia ball, basketball, korfbal, softball.

KIN250 Individual Activities credits: 1

This class provides instruction in a variety of lifetime sports. Activities featured are badminton, golf, bowling, tennis and racquetball. Special course fee.

KIN251 Individual Activities: Golf credits: 1

This class focuses on teaching the basic golf swing including the specifics of irons, fairway woods, and the driver. Specific skills like chipping, pitching, and putting are also taught. Basic U.S.G.A (United States Golf Association) rules and regulations will be covered. Fun, good sportsmanship and diversity within the sport will also be emphasized. Special course fee.

KIN252 Individual Activities: Tai Ji I credits: 1

Students will learn the history and development of Tai Ji principles. Students will use Tai Ji principles and movement to improve awareness, strength, balance, and agility for a more active lifestyle.

KIN253 Individual Activities: Tai Ji II credits: 1

A continuation of KIN252 (Tai Ji I). Students will learn the history and development of Tai Ji principles. Students will use Tai Ji principles and movement to improve awareness, strength, balance, and agility for a more active lifestyle. PREREQUISITES: KIN252

The student has the opportunity to earn credit by writing a college-level paper reflecting learning in this subject through experience, reflection, concept formation, and application of those concepts to new situations. The paper is evaluated by a Concordia faculty member.

The student petitions to gain academic credit through verification of completed college-level training (seminars, workshops, licenses, apprenticeships, etc.) conducted in a non-collegiate setting. The petition is evaluated by a Concordia faculty member.

KIN260 Recreational Activities credits: 1

Students gain exposure to recreational activities which focus on the productive use of leisure time.

KIN295 Independent Study in Kinesiology credits: 1

KIN315 Fitness Trainers credits: 2

This course is designed to give knowledge of the basic skills of fitness training. This class involves learning about how to implement a proper fitness program to the individual and group.

KIN323 Adapted Physical Education credits: 2

Physical education activities modified to the needs, limitations and interests of the mentally and/or physically challenged individual.

KIN324 Sports in American Society credits: 2

Students survey and discuss the various branches of sports, both amateur and professional, as they are played in the United States. A critical analysis of the sports scene.

KIN334 Biomechanics credits: 3

Students examine the role of the skeletal, muscular, and nervous systems in human movement. Basic mechanical principles underlying and effecting efficient human movement are examined. PREREQUISITES: BIO331

KIN335 Physiology of Exercise credits: 3

Students investigate the application of physiological principles to the study of human performance related to sports and leisure activities. PREREQUISITES: BIO331

- KIN350 Coaching Methods credits: 3
This course presents the theories of coaching and strategies of team sports.
- KIN395 Independent Study in Kinesiology credits: 1
Junior level independent study.
- KIN400 Tests & Measurements in Physical Educ credits: 2
The history, theory, and principles of testing in a physical education program are presented. Predictive and inferential aspects of statistics.
- KIN401 Teaching Rhythms & Dance credits: 2
This course focuses on the methods and techniques of instruction in rhythmic and dance activities.
- KIN402 Theory & Practice of Individual Sports credits: 2
This course focuses on instructional strategies and techniques. Traditional individual sports and games of American culture will be taught as will those of other cultures and countries.
- KIN405 Theory & Practice of Team Sports/Games credits: 2
This course focuses on instructional strategies and techniques. Traditional games of American culture will be taught, as will the sports of Native Americans and other cultures and countries.
- KIN410 Health Education credits: 3
Major contemporary health issues, methods of instruction, and curriculum design and planning are discussed.
- KIN483 Senior Project credits: 1
Students combine research and practical implementation of theories and concepts to develop an individual project.
- KIN490 Physical Education Internship credits: 1
Physical education internship.
- KIN495 Independent Study in Kinesiology credits: 1
Senior level independent study.
- LAN282 Language, Communication & Culture credits: 3
Examines the forms and functions of oral and written communication. Emphasis is placed on the role culture plays in human communication processes, especially in interpersonal relationships and the mass media.
- LAN435 Literature for Young Adults credits: 3
Students receive a general survey of the wide body of literature which is available for use with adolescents, as well as criteria for evaluation and presentation of a variety of techniques for teaching such literature. Formerly EDU435 prior to the 2006-2007 school year.
- LAN437 Children's Literature credits: 3
Provides a general survey of the wide body of literature that is available to use with children, as well as criteria for evaluation and presentation of a variety of techniques for teaching such literature. Formerly EDU437 prior to the 2006-2007 school year.
- LAN483 Mth Lang Arts Refl Assess/Senior Project credits: 1
Focuses on reflective assessment of content, pedagogy, and materials used to teach language arts at the elementary level, including student goal setting and curricular differentiation.
PREREQUISITES: EDU340 and EDU341 and LAN362
- LAT101 Elementary Latin I credits: 3
This course introduces the rudimentary elements of Latin grammar, syntax, vocabulary, pronunciation, and translation. Students also receive an introduction into the technical discourse of grammatical analysis. An additional hour of laboratory work is required weekly.

- LAT102 Elementary Latin II credits: 3
Continuation of LAT101. As with LAT101, an additional hour of laboratory work is required weekly. PREREQUISITES: LAT101
- LAT295 Independent Study in Latin credits: 1
Sophomore level independent study.
- LAT395 Independent Study in Latin credits: 1
Junior level independent study.
- LAT495 Independent Study in Latin credits: 1
Senior level independent study.
- MAT101 Beginning Algebra credits: 3
Students learn fundamental concepts involving sets, whole numbers, integers, rational numbers and irrational numbers. Using basic operations to solve problems. Especially designed for students who lack basic algebra skill or a student who desires an overview on algebra before attempting college algebra.
- MAT105 Intro to Statistics credits: 3
Introduces students to descriptive statistics, frequency distributions, graphic displays, and measures of central tendency and variation. The course also provides students with experience in sampling, confidence intervals, and preliminary inferential statistics test methods. (ADP) PREREQUISITES: MAT101
- MAT106 Basic Statistics credits: 2
Examines basic descriptive and inferential statistics, including tables, graphs, measures of central tendency and variation, and the use of sample statistics in estimation and hypothesis testing to draw conclusions about a population. PREREQUISITES: MAT101
- MAT110 Mathematics for Teachers credits: 3
Students are exposed to hands-on discovery learning methods in mathematics. Topics appropriate for the elementary classrooms are presented using manipulatives and computer activities. PREREQUISITES: MAT101
- MAT111 College Algebra credits: 3
This course covers the real number system, exponents and radicals, polynomial equations, simultaneous equations, introduction to matrices, inequalities, polynomial, rational, exponential and logarithmic functions and their graphs. PREREQUISITES: MAT101
- MAT112 Trigonometry credits: 2
Topics studied in this course include trigonometric functions, identities, transcendental and inverse trigonometric functions, and trigonometric equations. PREREQUISITES: MAT101
- MAT221 Calculus I & Analytic Geometry credits: 4
Plane analytic geometry, functions, introduction to limits and continuity, the derivative, curve sketching using derivatives, applications of the derivative, definite integration, fundamental theorem of calculus, vectors, and conic sections. PREREQUISITES: MAT111 and MAT112
- MAT222 Calculus II & Analytic Geometry credits: 4
Integration of differentiation of trigonometric, exponential, logarithmic and hyperbolic functions, derivatives of parametric polar equations, general methods of indefinite integration, applications of the definite integral to volume, centroids and moments, and indeterminate forms. PREREQUISITES: MAT221 or MAT221
- MAT231 Linear Algebra credits: 3
The application and theory of linear algebraic structures, linear transformations, matrices, vectors and vector spaces, echelon systems, and canonical forms. PREREQUISITES: MAT221 or MAT221

- MAT257 LLP credits: 0
The student has the opportunity to earn credit by writing a college-level paper reflecting learning in this subject through experience, reflection, concept formation, and application of those concepts to new situations. The paper is evaluated by a Concordia faculty member.
- MAT258 PST credits: 0
The student petitions to gain academic credit through verification of completed college-level training (seminars, workshops, licenses, apprenticeships, etc.) conducted in a non-collegiate setting. The petition is evaluated by a Concordia faculty member.
- MAT261 Elementary Statistics credits: 3
Descriptive and inferential statistics. Problems of parametric and non-parametric statistics developed from live data. Basic course for students of psychology and business.
PREREQUISITES: MAT101
- MAT295 Independent Study in Mathematics credits: 1
Sophomore level independent study.
- MAT323 Calculus III & Analytic Geometry credits: 4
Epsilon - Delta' definitions, indeterminate forms, infinite series, solid analytic geometry, partial derivatives, multiple integrals, vector fields, line and surface integrals, Green's Theorem and Stokes' Theorem. PREREQUISITES: MAT222
- MAT341 Differential Equations credits: 3
This course covers ordinary differential equations, higher order linear equations, systems of first order equations, series and numerical solutions with applications. PREREQUISITES: MAT222 or MAT323
- MAT351 Modern Algebra credits: 3
This course is an introduction to the theory and concepts of modern algebra as well as to their role in unifying other mathematical notation and their application in such areas as groups, rings, field, Boolean Algebras. PREREQUISITES: MAT222
- MAT371 Modern Geometry credits: 3
A survey of Euclidean geometry and several non-Euclidean geometries including finite, projective and hyperbolic. PREREQUISITES: MAT222
- MAT395 Independent Study in Mathematics credits: 1
Junior level independent study.
- MAT461 Probability and Statistics credits: 3
Basic concepts of probability; moments, moment generating function, expectation, variance, covariance, distribution functions and their application to statistical tests of hypotheses; bivariate, marginal and conditional distributions; treatment of experimental data. Development of formulas and methods are emphasized but there will be applications to problems in science and/or social science. PREREQUISITES: MAT323
- MAT483 Senior Project credits: 1
Students combine research and practical implementation of theories and concepts to develop an individual project.
- MAT495 Independent Study in Mathematics credits: 1
Senior level independent study.
- MS101 Introduction to Officership credits: 1
Develops an understanding of the U.S. Army. Introduces the critical military leadership skills used by the officer corps of the Army. Topics include: customs and traditions of the service, organization of the Army, and the officer corps' role in the service of the country. Students have the opportunity to participate in various military skills training such as rifle marksmanship, rappelling, land navigation, orienteering, briefing techniques and physical fitness classes. There is no obligation to the military associated with this class.

credits: 1

Learn/apply principles of effective leading. Reinforce self-confidence through participation in physically and mentally challenging exercises with upper division ROTC students. Develop communication skills to improve individual performance and group interaction. Relate organizational ethical values to the effectiveness of a leader. One hour and a required leadership lab plus participation in a one hour session for physical fitness. Participation in a weekend exercise is optional, but highly encouraged.

MS201 Military Leadership

credits: 1

The focus of this course is to develop the students' basic understanding of military leadership. The course focuses on current military leadership theory and its organizational application. It includes discussions of leadership styles, principles of leadership, human behavior, principles of motivation, ethics, counseling, communications and the military problem solving process. It also incorporates leadership assessment training and discussions of how leadership influences the achievement of organizational goals.

MS202 History of the Military Art

credits: 1

History of the Military Art examines contemporary U.S. Army operational doctrine by explaining the fundamental principles of war that comprise the permanent elements of military science and strategy. The importance of these principles is illustrated through a detailed study of certain historical campaigns and their relation to current operations. Students are expected to contribute to classroom discussions and master the significant details of major campaigns.

credits: 2

Series of practical opportunities to lead small groups, receive personal assessments and encouragement, and lead again in situations of increasing complexity. Uses small unit tactics and opportunities to plan and conduct training for lower division students both to develop such skills and as vehicles for practicing leading. Two hours and a required leadership lab, plus required participation in three one-hour sessions for physical fitness. Participation in one weekend exercise is also required.

credits: 2

Continues methodology of Military Science 301. Analyze tasks; prepare written or oral guidance for team members to accomplish tasks. Delegate tasks and supervise. Plan for and adapt to the unexpected in organizations under stress. Examine and apply lessons from leadership case studies. Examine importance of ethical decision making in setting a positive climate that enhances team performance. Two hours and a required leadership lab plus required participation in three sessions for physical fitness. Participation in one weekend exercise is required.

MS401 Leadership Challenges & Goal-Setting

credits: 2

Plan, conduct and evaluate activities of the ROTC cadet organization. Articulate goals and put plans into action to attain them. Assess organizational cohesion and develop strategies to improve it. Develop confidence in skills to lead people and manage resources. Learn/apply various Army policies and programs in this effort. Two hours and a required leadership lab, plus required participation in three sessions for physical fitness. Participation in one weekend exercise is also required.

MS402 Military Professionalism & Ethics

credits: 2

This course explores concepts of military professionalism and relates these concepts to issues in military ethics, conduct of military operations, and national security. Contemporary military leadership issues are explored. Selected professional development topics also are addressed to facilitate the transition from cadet to lieutenant. Standards of conduct governing Army personnel are presented to inform cadets of expected and proper behavior while in the service of the military. The 90 minute laboratory places the senior student in positions of leadership.

MSxxx Army ROTC

credits: 1

Army Reserve Officer Training Corp administered and conducted on the campus of the University of Michigan.

MUS111 Improvised Art Ensemble
